

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 1

I woke up late in the morning, and quickly rushed to my phone to check if I have any new message, but there was none. I flung it on the bed beside me hanging my head down burying my face in my palm. "Quincy! Quincy!!" I heard my mum calling, down stairs. I let her called the third time before I stood up from my bed and took my phone along with me. I got down stair and sat on the couch in the living room dropping my phone on the center table. My mum came sitting beside me holding a glass cup. "You woke up so late today" my mum said taking the glass cup to her mouth. "Am not feeling well" I told her looking at her as she took the wine to her mouth. "Isn't it too early for that?" I said looking at her. "Why dear? It's just a glass" she said placing the cup on the table. I moved closer to my phone, resting my shin on my hand, staring at my phone seriously. "They've not called you" my mum said looking at me. I rested my head back on the couch, looking depressed. "It's ok dear everything will be good this time" she said looking at me. I heard a notification sound on my phone. I took my phone and checked the message. I jumped up on my feet after reading the message. "wow I did it" I said looking at my mum. "Congratulations, am so happy for you" my mum said smiling brightly. She was so happy, and am also very happy.

I have did so many audition but it all failed, and finally I was picked in this audition I went for. I love singing but all the audition I went for, I got rejected because of lack of emotional feelings in my song but I love singing. Finally I got to my dream.

I was chosen by Karen musical school. Where good talented Singers and dancers attend.

My mum got me everything I will be needing even though we are not that rich, she loved me and always support me in everything I do because I was her only child. I don't know much about my father, since she doesn't tell me much about him. She only told me he died before I was born, and I can't find a single picture of him. She loves me dearly and cares for me a lot as her only child.

I packed all things I will be needing, including my wears. Everything was packed in a traveling bag. My mum hugged me tight "I will miss you dear" she said patting my back. She released me holding my shoulders I noticed the tears in her eyes and I can't hold mine either too. Tears rolled down my cheeks as I looked at her "I will miss you too mum" I said sobbing. I hugged her tight. She escorted me to the bus station and went back home. I carried my bag into the bus and struggling with my guitar at my back. Someone helped me carry the bag in. And I manage to get in before the bus moved. I sat down in the front seat beside the guy that helped me carry my bag. I raised my head and thank him "thank you" I said looking at him, he was putting on a black hoodie cardigan, covering his face with a faze cap. He didn't say anything, he was just busy with his phone. "What a wield guy" I thought to myself.

Two hours later we got to Karen school. I got down from the bus, and wheeled the bag along with me looking around the school, I don't know which way to go. The guy also got down heading toward the school. I quickly walked up to him "hey" I called when I got to him, But he didn't stop or look at me. I continue following him. to get his attention, I tried to tap him, but I stepped on my shoe lace and mistakenly pushed him forward. His phone fell on the hard floor and the screen broke. He removed the Hood from his head and looked at me angrily he has a bright eye ball and a handsome face. He looks so scary as he raised his eyebrows "what do you think you're doing" he said looking at me. I quickly turned my face down feeling sorry "please forgive me, I don't mean to...." I didn't finish the statement before he left, picking his phone on the ground. I looked at him as he left feeling sorry "Quincy what have you done" I said hitting my head with my hand. "Ouch that hurts" i said patting my head. I bent down and tied my shoe lace very well. I stood up still looking down at my shoe, someone bumped into me again making me fall back to the ground. I hit my butt on the floor "ouch" i cried looking up at the person, the sun was shining into my eyes as I looked up, I didn't see the face clearly. "Oh Am so sorry, please forgive me" the person apologised. I stood up holding my butt. "You should watch your way" I said still rubbing my butt. I raised up my head to see that person "oh my God, Noah" I said looking at him. "Quincy" he said also looking surprised.

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 2

I jumped at him and we hugged. He released me and looked at me "wow it's been so long, I really missed you" he said holding my hands. "Me too" I replied. I picked up my guitar from the ground and hold my bag beside me. "Do you attend this school also?" I asked him. "Yes, are you just joining us" he asked looking down at my bag. "Yes, I think am lucky to finally join you guys" I said smiling.

Noah was my best friend when I was in school, they lived across the street opposite to our house then. we went to the same kindergarten and we graduated from the same high school. Before we finally depart after they out of our street and relocated. I was so happy to see him again. I remembered then, when we we're still small. he used to get bullied in school, because he was a gentle kind of person, so students pick on him easily. Anytime I found the student picking on him. I will scare the student and warned them not to come close to my friend again or else, I will break their ribs. Since then we've been a good friends. We were both so close in high school that the girls were so jealous of me because Noah was one of the hottest guy In school then. I pulled my bag along with me, as we both walked on into the school. He took me to the Dean's office and went back promising he will check on me later.

I entered the office and I was asked to fill up some papers. A lady came and took me to the girls hostel, since my house is very far from school. Some students comes direct from their homes because it was not far from school. She took me to my room and I met two girls there. I will be sharing the room with them. The lady left after saying some few words to me. I removed the guitar from my back and placed it on the bed. I looked round the room and shook my head positively. The two girls came to me sitting beside me. "Hy"the first girl greeted. "What's your name?"the second girl asked. "My name is quincy"I said smiling at them. "Am haelie and she is....."

"Clara"the second girl cuts in. I looked at both of them and smiled, they looks so friendly. We talked and gist about some things and I can see they are both funny kind. I really love how the room was designed, I looked at the closed door and saw the wallpaper put there. "Oh that guy"I said looking at the wallpaper, he looks more handsome and sexy in the picture. "Yes that's Jason, he's one of most popular and hottest guy in Karen school,he sings,dance and rapped really cool. "Clara said looking at me. I shook my head in agreement. "I think you also know him"haelie said smiling. "Not that really"I said looking at her.

The second day....

"Kling kling kling"the bell ranged out loud. I opened my eyes and saw haelie and Clara already up. "Stand up, or you'll be late for class"Clara said pulling my bed cover off me. I stood up stretching my body. I went to the bathroom taking my brush from my locker. I took my bath and went back to the room. Haelie and Clara were already dressed carrying their bags with them,they are both going for dance class. "We are waiting for you, be fast ok"Clara said looking at her wrist watch, "this is 8:25 and lesson starts by 8:30"haelie said looking at me. I quickly dress up and also took my guitar for the music class.

The hostel to the school is like 10 minutes walk. We got to the school after ten minutes, haelie and Clara went to their dancing class while I also go for mine. I checked my wrist watch and it's almost 9:00. I quickly rushed towards the class. I stood at the door breathing heavily"calm down Quincy, breath in"I breath in slowly. "And breath out"I said breathing out. I opened the door and entered the class. I looked round the class as all eyes were on me. The teacher stopped and looked straight at me. "Why are you standing there? You are late for class on your first day"the teacher said looking at me. I looked round and it seems all the seats were occupied. "There is an empty seat here"he said pointing to the seat in his front. I went to seat there and didn't look at the person beside me. I just placed my guitar gently by the desk. The teacher continue the lesson. "La la la la la la la la la" the class also repeats after him.

Some minutes later the class was over and the teacher went out. I looked at the person beside me and saw the guy from the bus. I didn't get to apologise properly for breaking his phone's screen. I looked at him and cleared my throat. "Am sor....."he didn't let me finish before he stood up,"can you excuse me?"he said looking at me. I quickly stood up for him to go. He walked towards the door putting both hands in his pocket. "What a rude guy, he should at least hear my apology"i said looking at him. I saw some girls following him with gifts in their hands. "Jason! Jason!!"they called his name as they ran after him with gifts, like a dog. But he ignored them all. Few minutes later, I took my guitar and went outside the class.

I walked down the passage busy with my phone. I saw the guy making call "Hello mum, do I have to take the bus again? Am tired of this please. I ran into a psycho girl yesterday who messed up the screen of my phone. That was why I didn't get to call you yesterday" I overheard him saying on the phone. "What? A psycho girl?" I said looking at him angrily. He hang up the phone and looked at me. "Why are you following me?" he asked looking at me. "What? Why would I follow you, when am not jobless" I said looking straight at him. "Did you just called me a psycho? You should watch your tongue if you don't want it cut off" I said raising my face up at him because he's a bit taller than me. "what? Cut off my tongue? Why am I even talking to a crazy girl" he said looking at me.

"Just get lost, I have had enough today" he said pushing me to the side. He walked out on me. "What a rude bastard" I said angrily looking at him. "Who cares if you're popular or not, what? Hottest guy my foot" i said angrily. I went out to the school compound sitting on a chair and holding my phone. A girl with long curly hair. was standing beside me making call, She was so beautiful. Her dress hugged her sexy body, showing her amazing curve. She's the type of girl every guy will want to go out with. I looked at her admiring her beauty, I don't know when she got to me. "were you listening to my conversation? I mean did you take pictures of me? Give me your phone let me check" she said snatching my phone from me. What is she doing why is this place full of rude people? I thought to myself standing up to get my phone back from her. "Give it back, why will I take a picture of you" I said trying to get the phone from her. The phone fell from her and landed on the floor. I picked it up and look at the broken screen, I looked up at her in anger holding my phone. "What have you done to my phone?" I asked her angrily.

#(My beautiful love song)

She didn't even say anything, she stood there looking at me. I moved to her and stretched the phone forward "did you find any of you picture there? huh" I asked looking at her. "Am sorry I don't mean to mess up your phone, I just hate people taking picture of me in secret" she said looking at me. What a wield girl, I don't have any idea of what she's talking about. Why will people take pictures of her? Is she a celebrity or what? "But you should...." I was still talking when some girls came holding a pen and a book "Helena please can we get your autograph?" They requested stretching there books to her. "What are they doing? Is she really a celebrity? Just like that guy?" I thought to myself looking at her as she sign the book for them. When she finished signing the girls all went away. Then I looked at her again wondering who she is. She looked at me "Am so....." She was cut in by someone.

"I have been looking around for you" I heard someone's voice behind me. He got to us and stopped beside me "hy Helena" Noah greeted, waving his hand at her. "Noah" she said smiling. "Do you guys know each other?" Noah asked looking at both of us. "There was a small misunderstanding between us" she said looking at my phone. "Hey what are still doing here?" Jason came to us standing beside the girl. I looked at him and rolled my eyes. Our gaze met and he quickly diverted it back to Helena. "Am so sorry, I have to compensate you for that" she said opening her purse. Jason stopped her and looked at my phone "let's call that even" he said taking the girl along with him. "What? Even?" I said looking at them as they both went. "You this crazy bastard, what do you think you're doing? I will...." I shouted on top of my voice, and started coughing because my voice almost sized. Noah stroked my back gentle to calm me down "it's ok or you will loose your beautiful voice" he said looking at me. "Let's get going ok" he said and We both left the place and went back inside.

Jason POV

I got to Helena and met Noah and that crazy girl with her. I think there was a misunderstanding before I got there, because I can see the girl's phone messed up. Helena wanted to pay for it but I stopped her because she also messed up my phone yesterday, we should call that even. I took Helena's hand and dragged her along with me before she could say anything. I can hear her voice as she was cursing on me. "Mad dog, keep on barking" I thought to myself smiling.

I got Helena to the car and went to the driver's seat, she also got in as I start the engine. "Do you know her?" Helena asked as she fasten her seatbelt. "That doesn't matter to you" I replied not looking at her. "We need to see your dad at the hospital today" I said and drives out of the compound.

Helena is like my sister, since we grow up together in the same neighborhood. We are just like family friends. Because her father and my father were tight friends since college. She's so gentle minded and also beautiful. But I never for once think of her as a woman.

We got to the hospital and went straight to her father's room in the hospital. He's a bit sick and have got admitted to their family hospital for three days now. Helena's dad loves her a lot and care for her. When we got to his room, we say our greetings to him, and he talked to us about some things. We stayed for like 30 minutes before we finally went back to school.

Quincy's POV

Noah and I talked about school life and gist about many things. We talked and laughed about some funny things we did in school back then. I remembered when Noah dressed like a girl in college on the school party, that day I laughed till I started crying. I still have the pictures on my phone and always tease him with it.

He looked at me as I talked about that time. "Do you still have the photos?" he asked me smiling. "Why will I still have it? I deleted it long ago" I said lying to him. "But to be sincere, you looked so cute in that outfit back then" I said smiling. "Are you serious?" he asked looking at me. "Yes, you're even prettier than a girl" I replied.

The school bell rang for practice and we both quickly walked inside. "Am going for dance practice, are you coming?" he asked me as we walked in. "Sure, I will" I replied smiling. Am not that a good dancer but I know I can be with enough practice. We got inside the dance class and I can see the outfit the girls are putting on, it's so different from mine. I looked down at myself and shook my head negatively. Noah looked at me and smiled. "Follow me" he said heading out. I followed him and we got to a change room. He opened a locker and brought out some cloth from it. He threw it at me and showed me where to change. He told me to join the class when am done, and left. I got to the entrance of the changing room and saw two doors there, I didn't even bother to look up I just opened one and went inside. I took off my cloth, I was left with bra and pant. I put on the small pant trouser and was about to put on the top when I saw Jason coming out at a corner. When he saw me he quickly turned his back at me "what do you think you're doing in the boys changing room" he said. I looked at him feeling embarrassed, "you this pervert, what do you mean by boys changing" I quickly put on the small top and went to check what's written on top of the door. "Boys change room" I looked at the other room and saw "girls change room. I rushed back inside and quickly packed my clothes. He turned to me and looked at me smiling. I looked down at my chest and raised up my head looking at him "what the hell are you smiling at, you this pervert!!!" I yelled at him angrily.

Episode 4

I quickly covered my chest with both hands "I mean look at yourself in the mirror" he said moving to me. He pushed me to the mirror to check out myself. I can see i wore the top wrongly. "are you gonna change that here again?" he asked looking at me. Feeling embarrassed, I quickly went out with my cloth and entered the girls changing room. I changed the top and went back to the practice room.

I got in and Jason followed after me. Everyone was paired in two, there was no one to pair with, so the teacher asked Jason and I to pair together. I looked at him and rolled my eyes. "why him of all people" I said under my breath. He looked at me like he also hate hate it. "Now hold your partner closely" the teacher said, and the whole students did as she said except Jason and I. We were both staring at each other "What are you doing? Won't you Move closer" I said to him. He moved closer to me and stretched out his hand. I took it and we watched the choreographers in the front as they both moved their body. "1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8" they counted with each step they take. They repeated the same thing like three times, before we were asked to do the same thing. Jason put his hand on my waist and we moved as the choreography did, but am not that fast. I stepped on his feet in every step we take. We continue this for a while and each time I step on him, he gives me this dirty look.

Soon the practice ended and I sat on the floor looking tired. Some students went outside, while some stayed behind resting. "Your steps are so worst, you need to work on that. to meet up with others" Jason said looking at me. He walked out of the practice room putting both hands in his pocket. I was still sitting on the floor when Noah came to me. He stretched out his hand to me smiling, I took it and got up. "How was it?" Noah asked looking at me. "Am not that good as you guys, I think I need to practice hard" I said to him smiling. We left the room and went back to change.

Noah told me he has something urgent to attend to and he left early. I walked down the passage heading out. "Hey" I heard someone calling. I looked beside me and saw the girl from earlier. "we meet again" i said looking at her. She looked at me and moved closer. "am so sorry about earlier" she said. "It's ok you don't need to worry about that again, since you apologize, I have forgotten about it" I said smiling. "Thank you. Am Helena" she said smiling. "Am Quincy" I said. "What a lovely name" she said and we both laughed. We both left and went outside. "I guess you love singing, since I saw you with a guitar earlier" she said as we walked. "Yes I love singing, and you?" I Asked looking at her. She smiled folding her arms "I also love singing and I dance as well" she said looking at me. "I can see you're a good dancer since you are so popular" I said. She smiled and we moved on. Her phone rang and she quickly took it from her purse. "excuse me please" she said picking the call. After receiving the call she came back to me. "I need to go for now, see you later" she said and headed towards her car. She drove out of the compound. I also moved to head back to the hostel. Then, realised I didn't pick my guitar from the practice room, so I went back to get it. I reached the entrance and was about to enter the room. I heard sound coming from the practice room and walked slowly to check who is in there. I opened the door and popped my head inside, I saw Jason sitting in front of the piano singing. oh oh my baby oh my oh my

However far away I will always love you baby.

However long I stay, I will always love you.

Oh oh oh baby, you stole my heart away. Oh oh oh baby, you know I have a lot to say.

Oh oh my baby oh my

I looked at him as he sings, he has a lovely and sweet voice. I entered and sat on a chair behind him to listen to more of it.

Oh oh my baby, love me like.....

He stopped for a while not looking back. I guess he noticed my present. He turned back and looked at me. He stared away on seeing me "Were you following me again" he asked not looking at me. "What? Following you? You must be kidding me. Why will I follow you? I came to get my....." I said stammering. He stood up from the piano sit and walked to where I was sitting. He moved closer to me bending his head down to my face. "You know what?" he asked looking at me. Our face are so close that it makes me hiccup. I hiccup as he stared into my eyes. He smiled at me and patted my shoulder playfully "you may not know this but you're not my type ok,i like girls with size B cup"he said looking straight into my eyes. "What?"

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 5

"What?"I said and quickly stood up. "That's true how can I be your type of all pretty girls in school, but I wasn't following you, I came to pick my guitar"I said and went to carry it where I placed it. I looked at him for a while, before I finally moved out. He stood there not saying anything but watched me as I rushed out.

"He's so full of himself, you think you're the most handsome guy on earth?huh"I murmured to myself walking out. "You're also not my type"I said with pride. I quickly walked out of the school building, and head back to hostel. My phone was ringing and I picked the call. "Hello mum"

"How are you, my lovely daughter?"

"Am fine mum"

"Hope it's not too hard on you over there?"she asked. "No mum, Noah is keeping my company"

"Noah?"

"Yes, that guy that lived across the street then"I explained to her.

"Oh noah. He also attend your school"

"Yes mum"

We talked for minutes before she hang up. I went inside the hostel and find haelie and Clara on their beds. Clara was reading a novel while haelie slept off already. "You guys are here"I said dropping my guitar. "We just came in, haelie was so tired that she fell asleep too early"Clara said looking at haelie. "I can see that"I said and taking off my cloth. I went into the bathroom and took a warm shower before going to bed.

In music class.....

The music teacher stood in front and of the class explaining about music.

"Ah ah ah ah ah ah ahhh"

"Ah ah ah ah ah ah ahh"we repeated after him. We did the voice training for five minutes. Then the teacher gave us a love song and asked,if anyone could come forward and sing with a real emotional feelings. Some students went out in front of the class to sing. I first hesitated because I know am not that good in that love aspect, but I later went out to try my best. We were five students in total. Me, Helena and three other girls. When Helena sang her voice was like an angel voice. The whole class clapped for her after she finished. Finally it's my turn. I moved forward and started singing, I was still singing the second verse when our music teacher asked me to stop. "Your feeling has to show in the music, not just sing with your mouth. For example, think about your boyfriend or your first love. with that you can sing it with emotional feelings" the teacher said. I sighed and started all over again. This time too the same thing. When I finished singing the teacher asked me to go back to my seat. And then continue with the lesson. I looked back and saw Jason and Noah sitting together, Jason gave me this look like won't-you-face-your-front. I smiled at Noah and concentrated on the lesson.

When the music class was over, students went out and I quickly went to Noah. "Hi" I said greeting him. He stood up and we both went out. "are you not hungry?" Noah asked me. "Am hungry, let's eat something before the next class. "Sure" he said and we left for the cafeteria. When we got there, we saw some students their eating. I saw Jason and Helena also eating on one of the tables, we bought our food and Helena asked us to come to their table, waving her hand at us. We joined them, placing our food on the table and sitting on the chair. I sat beside Jason while Noah sat beside Helena. "Hy" I said to Helena raising my hand. She smiled at me nodding her head in response. "you really sing great back in the class" Noah said smiling. "Thanks" Helena said smiling at Noah. Jason was staring at Noah all this while, and I can see the look in his face, like he's not happy to see him. I cleared my throat and he looked at me and continue eating. "Jason this is Noah, my friend" she said introducing them. Noah stretched his hand to shake him, but Jason ignored him looking away. I looked at Jason and rolled my eyes "this rude thing" i thought to myself giving him a dirty look. I raised up my cup to drink from it and the cold drink poured all over my dress. "oh my God" I said looking down at my cloth. Noah stood up to clean it but Jason already brought out his handkerchief. "You should be more careful, you dummy" he said cleaning my dress with his handkerchief. Noah and Helena looked at each other in surprise. I was also surprise to see the rude Jason cleaning my dress himself in present of every

He continue dusting my dress with his handkerchief. I raised up my head to see the expression on Noah and Helena's face. They were both surprised "Hmm hmm" I cleared my throat to call his attention. Jason stopped for a while and quickly stood up looking at me with an unknown expression written on his face "Clean it yourself" he said and threw the handkerchief at me rudely. He walked on not looking back. I picked the handkerchief and looked at him as he left "who ask him to do this for me in the first place? Why is angry" I said holding the handkerchief. "See you guys later" Helena said going after Jason. Noah and I also left the place later after them.

Noah and I were walking down the premises. "I don't know you guys are this close" Noah said. "Oh not that really, I was also surprise by his act today" I said looking at Noah. "Hmm Jason can't just do that for any girls" Noah said looking at me. "Maybe he ate something bad today" i said smiling.

We chatted for a while before the bell rang for practise.

Jason's POV

I left them at the cafeteria. I don't know why I did that for her. "Well it doesn't mean anything, Its good to be nice to some girls at times. It's ok" I said silently. I walking down the compound thinking about this and that. I heard some yjk shouting behind me. "Jason jason please can we get your autograph?" they pleaded following me. I stopped and quickly changed my expression. I turned to them smiling "it's ok" I said collecting their pen. I sign for them and quickly rushed to the class on hearing the bell. "We love you Jason" I heard them shouting as I rushed to the class.

I went straight to the changing room and stood at the entrance. I opened the door slowly, and peeped Inside. I looked round the guys changing room and found guys changing. I took a breath of relief "what was I thinking? Why will she come here again after I showed her the girls changing room already?" I said silently still popping my head in. "what are you doing?" jude asked moving his face close to mine facing me. "You scared me" I said moving back in shock. "What's wrong with you?" Jude said looking at me. I entered the room and pushed Jude to the side "just get lost" I said moving to my locker. I saw noah changing at his locker and I quickly changed my clothes and went to him by his locker. I places one hand resting on on his locker and the second hand in my pocket. "Hey" I said looking at him as he locked his locker. He looked at me and smiled. I removed my hand from his locker and put it inside my pocket. "Do you just smiled" I said looking at him. "Why? Should I cry then?" he replied still smiling. "Why do you pretend you don't know me back there" I asked him. "Is that why you ignored me?" he asked. I looked at him and smirked. "Anyway how do you know that psycho girl" I asked him. He looked at me badly "Don't call my friend a psycho" he said. "Your friend? Unbelievable" I said looking at him in surprise. "Yes she's my friend" he said nodding his head. "Let's go to practice, before we get late" he said and moved ahead of me. I moved out after him.

When I got to the practise room, the first person my eyes caught was that girl. She wore a tight blue pant trouser and a lose tan top showing her flat tummy, matching with her dancing shoes. I stared at her for a while. And quickly moved to join the class . The teacher stood In front of the class holding a folded paper in her hand.

"Everyone should listen to me" she said looking round the room. The whole class was in silent "We are having a school performance next week" she said and the whole class screamed in excitement. "Silent!" she said clapping her hands. Everywhere was silent again. "I will group you guys in four. And you will have to practice together for the performance" she said, and unfolded the paper she was holding. "Sam, Clara, noah and Helena. Mathew, Alice, Phoebe, and peace. Joy, Justin, lina and ciara. And lastly Jude, Nana, Jason and Quincy" she called out the names and folded the paper back. "Now, each group should stick together" she said, and the students grouped as she has called their names. We came together in groups and she gave us a song to practice with. The song she chose for us was 'shape of you' by ed sheeran. I love the song and would like to practise a dance on it.

"You guys will practise on this song, and each group will be presenting different dance steps on this same song. We are looking forward to the best performance"she said smiling. She left after saying all this and the class ended without practicing anything. "Wow what a nice song"Jude said smiling. Our group concluded when to practice the dance and we all left the practice room.

Quincy POV

We left the practice room after discussing about the dance practice. I wish I was in the same group as noah. I don't like the fact that I was in a group with jason. I thought to myself heading to the changing room.

I accidentally bumped into someone hitting my head on his hard chest. I looked up slowly to see the person. And I saw jason looking at me badly.

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 7

I moved backward looking at him"this has turned to your habbit"he said looking at me. "Sorry"I said raising my hand at him. I walked out on him and went to change.

I went to the cafeteria to get some snacks before going to the dance practice scheduled that evening. "Hey"Helena called from behind. I turned back and smiled at her"hy"

"Where are you going to?"she asked me. "The cafeteria"I replied pointing at the direction. "Oh am also heading there, let's go together"she said and we both left. We got the snacks and sat on a bench outside the cafeteria. A call came in from noah"hello"

"Hy what's up"

"Do you left already"he asked "no am still within the premises"I replied him. We talked for a while and he told me he will be leaving early for their practice. He hang up the phone. I slipped the phone back to my pocket. "It's like you and Noah have a quite relationship"she asked taking from her snacks. "Hmm yes. Noah is my friend right from kindergarten"I said smiling. "Oh I see"she said nodding her head in agreement. "I guess your boyfriend is jason"I said looking at her. She smiled and looked at me"we are also friends and jason is like my elder brother, since we grew up together from kid. He might be rude,arrogant and annoying, and never admit that he was wrong sometimes, but he cares for others and have this cute side of him. He looks though from outside but he has a kind heart"she said all this smiling brightly. And I guess she liked him more than just a friend. "But he's so rude at times"I said with a little frown on my face."that's Jason for you"she said and we both laughed.

Jason, Jude, Nana and I were in front of the old practice room. Since we don't have somewhere else to practice, the main practice room is occupied by some other groups. I opened the door and can see the place is dirty and full of cobwebs. Since they've not been using it for a very long time. "Are we gonna practice here?" Jude asked Looking round the room. I looked at him and rolled my eyes "we should start cleaning or what are you guys waiting for?" I said and moved in while Nana followed.

We started cleaning the room except for Jason. He stood at a corner busy with his phone with air peace plugged into his ear "what's is that? Are we cleaning for him" I said silently. I looked at him angrily and moved to his side. "hey, hey" I, called but he can't hear me because of the air peace. I called again but he didn't notice me, since he was busy playing game on his phone. I moved closer to him and pulled one air peace out. He raised up his head and looked at me. "what do you want?" he asked. I was surprised by this question. Didn't he see us cleaning? "Seriously can't you see we are cleaning? Why are you sitting down doing nothing? Are we your slaves or what?" I asked him angrily. He looked at me like am just blabbing, he plugged back the air peace into his ear ignoring me. I was so pissed off that I feel like plugging the both air peace out. "Hey just let him be, he won't do it even if you beg on your knees" I heard Jude's voice. I looked at Jude and Nana biting my lips in anger. Nana looked at me and nodded her head in agreement. I looked back at Jason angrily "you this stubborn brat" I said raising my hand to hit him, even though I know I can't. He looked up at me and my hand hanged up in the air. He looked at me wondering what my hand was doing up there, he nodded his head and picked a brush from his side and placed it on my opened hand. I held it tightly getting more angry. "You should remove those cobwebs" he said pointing up at some corners. "What the....." before I could finish Nana dragged me from his side. "It's ok Quincy, don't mind him and let's just clean" she said smiling. Jude was laughing silently at us. "This is so stupid, I won't clean again. I can't!" I said angrily, dropping the brush to move out but Nana held my hand again "you can't do it that way. You can't go because of him, but you have to clean it for the sake of our practice huh" she said holding my hand. Her words pinned me down and calmed my nerves. I nodded my head in agreement and picked the brush up. I moved to the side of the room and used the long brush to remove the cobwebs. I moved to the side where Jason was sitting and dusted the cobwebs, I know its dusting on him. So, I climbed on the table to dust more from the angle, But the brush is not long enough. I stretched my hand up standing on my toes to dust it. I moved a bit to the edge to get more close to it, but I tripped and was falling from the desk. I closed my eyes because I can't bear to feel the pain I will go through if I should land on the hard ground. I landed on something that feels like a cloud, I think am in heaven already. I was still closing my eyes imagining things in my head. I heard the angel voice speaking to me "please open your eye" the angel said to me. "Yes my angel, I will" I said smiling. "What! Open your eyes before I drop you to the ground" I heard the voice again but now it sounds familiar and clear. At first I opened one eye closing the other one. I can see the ceiling, and finally I opened both eyes slowly. The first person I saw was Jason, I looked down and can see he was holding me in his hand. I closed again "where is the angel?"I asked closing my eyes. "What is she blabbing about?"jason said still holding me. Now I can hear the voice clearly, it's Jason's voice. I opened my eyes widely looking at him. I feel so embarrassed and uncomfortable.

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 8

Jude and nana were also staring at me,wondering what am talking about."please let me down"I said in a low voice not looking at him. He placed me down gently. I looked at him and quickly stared away out of embarrassment. "Hmph you're too heavy, what do you eat everyday"jason said dusting the dusts from his dress. "We are done cleaning, can we start practice now"nana said taking the rubbish out into the dustbin. I moved to go out and change but jason held my hand pulling me back. I looked at my hand and then looked back at jason"no thank you?"he asked looking at me. "Oh thank you" I said in a weak tone. He released my hand and I moved out with nana to change.

Jason's POV

She left to change with nana, leaving jude and I behind. The cloth I was wearing is comfortable for me to dance with and no need to change. Everywhere was clean and neat. I brought out my phone and searched the song we'll be using for the practice. Few minutes later Quincy and nana came in. They were both dressing in a small short and a lose top, to be able to move freely.

I stood up placing my phone on the desk.

Quincy's POV

The four of us came together"I will give you guys some steps and you can add your own if you have any new dance steps"jason said moving forward. He stood there in the front facing us. He played the music from his phone *shape of you*by ed sheeran. He started giving some dance moves. The dance steps he was showing us is too hard for me. I just stood there looking at him as if he was giving a show. The dance steps were awesome but believe me, it's really hard to follow. Jason is really a good dancer, I love the way he moves but I don't think I can learn that,its too hard and fast. after showing some few steps, He stopped and paused the song"how was that?"he asked smiling. "Wow awesome. That's very cool guy"jude said clapping his hands. "It was great"nana also supported. I didn't say anything, I just stood there not saying a word about the dance steps, but I know it was great. The three of them looked at me expecting me to say something. I looked at them and nodded my head in agreement."it was great but..."I stopped for a while. "But what?"jude asked looking at me. "It's too hard to follow"I said scratching my head. Jason looked at me and rolled his eyes"here we have a problem"he said looking at me. "It's good, you will get it eventually. You Just need to practice more and more to meet up with it"nana said smiling. I think it's not that hard for them to practice but am the problem here. Am not used to it and it's true am lacking behind,but I wish I could dance like they do. "Ok I will try"I said looking at them.

Jason played the song from the beginning and started dancing again step by step. He finished dancing to the first verse and started over again. He repeated the dance steps to us over and over again before we also start following his lead.

We followed the dance steps he showed us but I was not that fast and that spoiled the show. We started over and over again because of me. We did this for like an hour before I started grabbing some steps from it. We stopped after a long practice. "We'll continue tomorrow"jason said looking tired. "Oh time has gone, see you guys tomorrow"nana said picking her bag. She left the practice room and jude also followed. I moved forward to start practicing again."you may pass out if you continue practicing again, let's just continue tomorrow"jason said picking his phone. I don't mind him I just kept on practicing on the dance. "What a stubborn girl, you just make people worry about you"he said. I stopped for a while and faced him"you can go, I will close the practice room"I said looking at him. I turned back to the mirror and start practicing again, even though I can't get it the steps very well,I kept on trying. "Quincy,Will you allow me to help you with it?"he asked me. I stopped on hearing this. I faced him wondering if he's serious or not. This is the first time am hearing my name from him. He never called me by my name before,he prefer giving me bad titles. I can't believe he volunteer to help me. Why? I looked at him in surprise. And he also stood there expecting answer from me.

(My beautiful love song)

"I don't want to stress you, you looked tired and need to rest"I said. He stared at me for a while and moved closer"it's ok let me, since we are a team and I don't like how you're lacking behind. We can't lose the performance because of you, so you need to meet up with others"he said looking at me. I feel bad with his words, it's true that am lacking behind and I need a good practice for that, maybe he can help me. Since he presented the dance moves. "Alright, thank you"I said looking at him. "Ok"he said and placed his phone on the desk.

He played the song and showed me the dance step by step. I followed as he danced. After showing me over and over again, he told me to do it on my own. I danced as he showed me but not that perfect as he does. He came closer and positioned me well for some parts I didn't do well. After sometimes I did it on my own without him correcting me. "Wow finally in a thousand years"he said clapping his hands. I looked at him and smiled. "You really tried"he said clapping. "Let me practice one more time before we end it"I said smiling. "Ok let's see that again"he said also smiling.

I played the music from the beginning and started dancing again. I did the dance moves without any mistake, Jason nodded his head in agreement as I moved my body from place to place. When I was about to finish the dance, my ankle sprained and I fell to the ground. "Ouch" I screamed holding my leg in pain. Jason quickly rushed to me and bent down beside me "you should be more careful of your steps" he said loosening my shoe lace. He removed my shoe and started massaging my ankle gently. I looked at him in surprise as he did that for me. "Does it hurt a lot?" he asked still massaging it. My ankle doesn't hurt anymore but my heart hurts. This is my first time feeling like this. My heart is racing seriously as he stroked my ankle gently. "Why is my heart racing? Maybe it's because of the dance?" I thought to myself. "How is it now?" he asked me. "It... It's ok" I said stammering. I stood up on my feet with my cheek burning like hell. "Are you sure it's ok?" he asked again looking at me. "Yes thank you" I replied him. "But why are you sweating like this?" he asked me. I touched my forehead and looked at my hand to confirm it. "Oh it's because of the practice, I think I practice too much, that's why" I said fanning my body with my hand. "Ok let's continue tomorrow" he said going for his phone. "Yes bye" I said rushing for my bag. I headed out of the practice room leaving him behind.

I went to change my dress and head back to the hostel. Why am I like that earlier? I thought to myself holding my chest to feel my heart beat again. My mum called and I picked it. "Hello mum"

"Hello my princess, how is camp? I have missed you so much" she said. "I miss you too mum" We talked on phone for long. She told me she's very lonely and bored by her self. She said wants to move near my campus, so that we could stay together again. I was very happy with that, at least I will be able to see my mum everyday again. She hung up the phone after a long discussion with her. I felt so happy and relieved.

I went to school early not to be late to the music class. I entered the class and saw few students in the class. I sat in front seat by the third row, I checked my wrist watch and it's remaining 10 minute for the class. So I brought out my phone and plugged in my air peace listening to music. Someone came sitting beside me. I looked beside me and saw Jason. "Hi" I greeted him. "How is your leg?" He asked me looking down at it. I plugged out the air peace from my ear "It's fine, thanks to you" I said looking at him. The teacher came in and stood in front of the class. Holding a book. We greeted her and she began the lesson. "Music is about feelings, you have to sing it with your heart, like you're singing for someone out there. With that, you can get the feeling of the song. With your emotional feelings expressed while singing it" the teacher explained moving from end to end. I listened to the teacher and shook my head in agreement. After the lesson we did some practice and the music class ended. I stood up preparing to move out.

Jason's POV

I looked at Quincy who is busy with her phone. I stood up to move out"see you later in practice"I said and left.

I moved out of the class and went outside the compound, I walked to the cafeteria to get some coffee before I will practice on my new music. but some fans girl came to me not three not five but like ten of them at once. I was very tired and I can't stand the noise coming from them"jason please can I get your autograph, jason please can I have a picture with you, jason please we want your autograph"the were all screaming seriously. I hate this kind of situation, to be a celebrity is not an easy thing. They were all screaming holding me. I saw Quincy coming toward the cafeteria"please am sorry, am kind of busy right now"i said and quickly free my self from them."Quincy!"I called rushing to her. They stopped screaming and looked at me as I went to her"let's go"I said wrapping my arm around her shoulder. "What are you doing?"she asked clenching her teeth. "Please save me this once"I said in a whisper. She looked back at the girls and nodded her head in agreement. We walked far away from the girls. I was still wrapping my arm around her shoulder. I saw Helena in front of us looking at me unusual, and I can see jealousy in her eyes. Why is she giving me that look? Did she misunderstood us? What is she thinking right now?

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 10

I quickly removed my hand from Quincy's shoulder and brought it down. "Hey"Quincy greeted Helena. But she gave her a fake smile and walked away. She didn't even utter a word. I know she misunderstood us,with the look on her face. Am aware that Helena has feelings for me since high school,but I only sees her as a younger sister,she tried all her possible best for me to love her back but it was one sided love. I tried not to hurt her feelings and keep the friendship between us. I feel so bad to see her act that way. "Thank you for saving me"I said to Quincy. "Oh that's ok"she replied smiling. "See you later"I said and left her.

Quincy's POV

I went to the cafeteria and bought coffee, I went to sit on one of the seats. I touched my shoulder softly thinking about how Jason held me back there,when he did that my heart beat increases, beating faster. I just don't get this feelings anymore am I falling for jason? No that's not possible. Capital letter impossible. I thought to my self holding the cup of coffee in my hand."Quin"Noah called sitting in front of me. He placed his cup on the table facing me."hy Noah"I greeted and took the cup to my mouth."How was the practice yesterday?"he asked me. "It was good thanks to jason,he helped me with it after the main practice"I said smiling. "You mean Jason helped you voluntarily?"he asked looking surprised. "Yes, you're also surprise"I said taking the cup to my mouth. "So how was yours" I asked him. "It was good, I hope we win" Noah said smiling. "Everyone wants to win but it based on your performance. We also hope we win, but who knows who will win? nobody" I said to Noah. "That's true" he said nodding his head.

After some minutes we left the cafeteria and went outside.

Noah and I were walking down the school compound talking about this and that. Then I noticed something unusual, people were staring at us gossiping to each other. "What are they staring at? Is something on my face?" I turned to Noah and asked him. "I think you're the one they're staring at" Noah said looking at me. "But why...." I didn't finish before someone cuts in "are you not Jason's girlfriend?" a girl asked me. I looked at her in surprise and laughed a little "what? Jason girl... Friend" I said looking at her. She brought out her phone and showed me a picture of Where Jason wrapped his arm around my shoulder back at the cafeteria because of some crazy fan girls. I took the phone from her and looked closely something was written on the picture.

"Finally our Jason had a girlfriend after so many rejections to girls, we still love you Jason we wish you happiness. This was written on it with some sad and crying emoji. "How is this true? Who did this? Who posted this on social media? I asked myself in thought looking confused. Noah was looking at me confused also, of course he also needs explanation for that. This is a big misunderstanding.

: (My beautiful love song)

Episode 11

"Am sorry there's a misun....."

"It's ok no need to explain but I envy you. Just take care of my Jason ok" the girl said and left.

I looked at Noah's face which had unknown expression on it. "I think there's a misunderstanding" I said to defend myself. "It's ok let's go" Noah said. And We left the scene.

Jason's POV

I was in the music class practicing on my new song when a message came in. I dropped the book I was holding on the table and brought out my phone. I opened the message and saw the picture of Quincy and I

Back at the cafeteria earlier, and I can't believe what I am seeing. "What the hell is this?" I said silently looking at my phone. "This is a big misunderstanding, how can I clear this? It seems the whole school would have seen this. I picked up my jacket to move out. I met Helena at the entrance holding her phone. With the expression on her face I can tell she saw the news already. "What is this?" she asked holding her phone up to me to see. "It's a misunderstanding Helena believe me" I said explaining myself to her. "But I saw the both of you with my eyes, is this true? I can't just take it if it's true"she said with bad expression on her face. I was so irritated by what she said"helena this is unlike you, so if everyone believed this, you can also believe it?"i asked looking at her. "I tried not to believe this,but it's just not clear to me"she said looking angry. Why am I even explaining myself to her? It's not like she's my girlfriend, so why is she this upset on this ordinary picture?"fine think all what you want,it's not like I made a promise to you or I confessed to you. If you can't believe the truth,then accept what you see"i said angrily walking out on her"Why are you like this Jason?"i stopped on hearing this with my back turned to her. "Fine it's true you didn't confess to me or made a promise to me, but have you ever consider my feelings for you? Does it even mean anything to you at all? Am I not good enough for you as a girl?"she asked with her voice shaking like someone who is crying. "I loved you with all my heart but all you do is just ignoring me all the time. What am I to you exactly jason?"she asked sounding bad.

"What you are to me?"I asked facing her. "Since you don't know let me make it clear to you. You're just like a sister to me or should I say a friend?, you're just that and nothing more but you're crossing the line as a friend or sister. Stop acting this way,it doesn't suit you"I said and finally walked out on her.

Quincy's POV

I explained everything to noah and of course he believed me. He left for his practice while I also went for mine. I walked down the passage heading to the practice room, I saw jason coming out of the music class not looking good, I stopped looking at him to say something about the news but He didn't even stop, he walked away like am a stranger. "didn't he see the news? I thought to myself as he walked away. "About the news in school don't worry about it, I will find a way to solve it"he said as I finally prepare to move to the practice room. I turned back to look at him, but he was gone. I wonder why he was like that. I saw Helena also coming from the music class with her face not looking good. I think there was a fight between them, but why? I thought to myself looking at Helena. "Helena what happened between you guy? Did you Guys fight? You're not looking good."I asked holding her hand. She removed her hand from me forcefully looking angry"stop playing innocent here ok, who's fault is this?"she asked looking angry. I have never seen this side of her before, why is she mad at me? Did I do something bad to her? But what is it?"I asked myself questions that I can't answer. I looked at her in surprise"but what is my fault? Did I offend you?"I asked her with a calm voice. "So you don't know what you did?, fine, don't show that your face before me again ok"she said and walked out on me pushing me to the side with her shoulder. I looked at her as she left angrily. I can't just get this situation anymore. Why is she like that? Is it because of the news?.

(My beautiful love song)

I thought to myself looking at Helena as she went. I moved on to the practice room and saw nobody there so, I decided to practice before they arrive. I don't have to change my outfit I think the one am wearing is better for it. I didn't play the song, but just practiced it off head. I did the moves over and over again without any mistake. I think am now good to go with others, I don't have any problem with it anymore. I did it for the last time, after finishing, I heard clapping of hands from behind. "Wow you're really good"jude said. I saw him in the mirror and turned to him smiling. "Thanks"I said taking the bottle water beside me. Nana also came in"hy guys"she greeted dropping her bag. "Where's jason?"jude asked looking at me. "I don't know you guys are that close"nana said smiling at me. "What? Did you also see the news?"I asked her. "Yes of course, that's the trending news in camp right now, even a dog has heard about it"nana replied. I looked at her feeling uneasy"that's not true, it was a misunderstanding"I said trying to defend myself. "Believe me...."

"It's true"jason cuts in, coming inside the practice room. He came beside me and wrapped his hand around my shoulder. I was speechless and surprised by jason's act. My heart started racing again as he stood close to me. "Why are you hiding the truth?"he said looking at me. "The news about us is true, is there any problem with that?"he asked looking at nana. "You see, you don't need to hid it"nana said smiling. I felt so uncomfortable with this, why is jason acting this way, when he knows the news were not real? I thought to myself. Jude was looking at us as if we are shooting a movie. With his mouth flung open like a broken door. "What? You must be kidding me. Unbelievable"he said looking at jason. Nana hit his head with her hand"then you have to believe it, fool"she said looking at jude. He touched his head looking at nana as if he will eat her raw. He moved closer to her bending his head down"can you hit me again please?"he requested bending his head for her. She pushed him away hissing. "Ok let's start practice now"jason said releasing me. I feel so calm after he did that. He moved forward and place his phone on the desk. "Let's all do it together now"he said. We all moved forward, jason and I in the front while nana and jude at the back. He played the song and we started moving together. I feel so good with the moves and I didn't miss any step of it, I moved along with song. after a while we finished with it.

"Good one"nana said clapping. "Now let's practice the remaining half of it"jason said looking at us. He moved forward standing in front of us. "Come forward"he said to nana. She went to join him in the front. "This part is for two people, I mean a male and a female so watch closely"he said. He played from where we stopped, And hold nana's hand they both nodded in agreement and started the dance. The moves where good and interesting but they were too close in every moves. They made mistakes and start over and over again,after they did it over for like some minutes, they got the moves and did it perfectly without mistakes. They both moved together in unison and when they were about to finished, jason held her waist and she wrapped her right leg around his stretching her hand forward wrapping her second hand around his shoulder to support herself,jason turned round with her and he knelt on the floor with there body closed to each other, nana stretched the second leg backward resting it flat on the ground, wrapping one arm around his shoulder and the second stretched out to the side. they finalized the dance like that. "Wow"jude screamed clapping his hands. I also joined him in clapping looking at them. They both separated smiling at their performance. Oh my God how am going to practice this? I thought to myself. This one is ever more harder and tricky than the one we practiced before.

He asked jude and I to do the same. But how am I gonna do this? It's too tricky and hard to practice. Jude went forward dragging me along. Jason and nana did it again before we also start our own. At first I was going along with it but when it reaches some stages it fails and we started over again. We did this like 10x because of me. And finally I got the moves when we've being doing it over like an hour. I wrapped my arm around his shoulder stretching my right leg backward with the second one wrapped around his. I stretched out my arm and we finalized it. They both claps there hands for us. We separated and went to join them. "Let the four of us do it together now"jason said moving to play the song. Jude and I stood beside each other at the back while jason and nana were in the front. He played the song again and we began dancing but this time I made a mistake. Which made them stopped and redo it again. My mind was not in the practise anymore and I don't know the reason I was like that. We started again and I was moving along at first but later failed it again. They stopped again because of me"will you focus and stop dragging us back?"jason yelled at me looking frustrated. "Am sorry"I apologized to them and we started over again. This time I focused on it and did it perfectly to the end. We finished and I checked the time it's almost 7pm. "Let's stop here today, we will practice from the beginning to the end tomorrow"jason said picking up his phone from the desk."alright bye"nana said picking up her bag. Jude and nana left the practise room together, Leaving us behind. Jason slipped his phone into his pocket and headed towards the door to move out. I picked up my bag and followed him. "Wait"I said going after him. He stopped and turned to me. I walked up to him at the door"what you said earlier to nana about us, I don't get it. Why did you have to lie about it?"I asked looking up at him. He smiled and moved closer me leaving a little space between us"don't you like it? I mean should we make it real then? He asked looking at me. My heart was beating fast again like it's going to burst open. I can't give him any reply, I just stood in front of him looking helpless. He looked out the window and looked back at me"not saying anything means yes,seriously I don't know you're this calm Quincy"he said smiling. Is he teasing me? Why is this stupid heart of mine beating fast? I thought to myself looking at him. Am not thinking straight anymore."what do you mean?,I can't....."he shut my mouth with a kiss. I opened my eyes wide in shock. Should I kiss him back? Should I pushed him away? Should I slap him for it. Many thoughts ran through my head. But this is my first kiss what should I do?

: (My beautiful love song)

Episode 12

I thought to myself as he kissed me. I closed my eyes and kissed him back. I held his jacket by the waist to support myself as he kissed me. He withdrew his lips from mine slowly.

Jason's POV

I saw Helena by the window while talking to Quincy, I don't know why she stood there maybe she wants to talk to me, and I don't have anything to say to her anymore. so I kissed Quincy purposely for her to see it with her eyes so that she can get over me and move on with another guy. I don't want to hurt her more before she realised the love she had for me was unrequited love. I did that so she can see it with her eyes. The look on her face were not good at all, she looked at me for some times as she saw me kissed Quincy, before she finally left. After she left, I quickly released Quincy and look at her, she opened her eyes slowly looking up at me. "Wha....t was th..at for?"she asked stammering. "Am sorry for that" I said apologizing to her. "What? Sorry? You kissed me and you said you're sorry for it. Are you kidding me? That was my first....."she stopped and looked at me. "Forget it, I always know you're a perverted jerk!"she said yelling at me. She stormed off the practice room in anger. I felt so guilty for what I did to her. I rested my back against the wall feeling bad. I looked at my wrist watch and it's almost 7:30,so I left the practice room and went for my car. I saw Helena by my car standing there beside it. "What are you doing....."

She slapped my face before I could finish the statement"must you be a complete jerk to the end? Why are you like this to me? Why?"she asked yelling at me. I looked at her in pity and moved closer to her. "I told you earlier that you're just like a friend to me but I think you're crossing the line as a friend. Let's keep the friendship between us and later don't let us fight over this matter again in future" I said and turned round to the driver's seat, I started the engine and drove off.

Jason's POV

I went for the music class and sat down beside Noah. "Hey"he greeted. "What's up?"I said sitting down beside him. "You don't look good why?"Noah asked looking at my face. "It's nothing, I just don't get enough sleep" I replied smiling. I looked around the class searching for Quincy but she wasn't in class. "Who are you looking for?"he asked looking at me. "It's nothing" I replied. Soon the music teacher came in and we started the lesson, But no sign of her yet. I looked so worried and disturbed. Soon when the lesson started she came in not looking good."late to my class?"the teacher said looking at her. "Am so sorry sir"she apologized and went to seat beside Helena in the front, Then the teacher continued. During the whole lesson I wasn't concentrating but looking at Quincy the whole time. When the lesson ended, and the teacher went out, students were also leaving the class. And not too long Quincy left. I quickly stood up to meet her but jude blocked me"hy jason"he greeted. I nodded my head back to him still stretching my neck to see her. I tried to move out but he stopped me again" I have something to show you in practice"he said smiling. "Ok ok later" I said trying to move again. "Why are you in a rush?"he asked again. "Are you doing this to me on purpose?"i asked him trying to move. "Why will...."

"Get lost will you?"i said pushing him to the side. I rushing out and looked right and left but I don't know which way she took, so I took right.

Quincy's POV

I left the class and went outside to the compound. I saw Helena and quickly walked to her. "Helena!" I called and she looked back. She stopped for me to get to her. "Helena, that yesterday news was just a rumor, believe me that's not how it is" I said trying to plead her again. "Am saying the tru...." she slapped me before I could finish. "What? A rumor? You have no shame do you? No pride, You know how I felt about Jason before you did this. So you want me to believe that was a rumor. I warned you never to show your face before me again but you kept showing it and it annoys me" she said looking at me angrily. I was so shocked I didn't know what to say, I held my face with both hands looking at her.

Am very Sorry for the late post guys.

To be continued tomorrow .

Episode 13

"I will warn you again, stay away from Jason because you don't worth him" she said harshly. "Why will she do that?" Jason said coming to us. He stood in front of me looking at Helena "why are you like this Helena?" he asked looking at her. She looked at me then looked back at Jason. She put on a fake smile nodding her head. she walked away very fast. My heart feel so heavy and hurt to see her acted that way. "We need to talk" Jason said holding my hand. I looked at him and forced my hand from him. I looked straight at him in the eyes. "Whose fault is this? Why are you making everything hard on me? I hate you! Just let me be ok" I said angrily. I left him and went towards an unknown destination.

I went to the field walking beside it, I watched some guys playing football, and I stood by the field watching them. Then a call came in, I took my phone and looked at the screen to see the caller, It's my mum. I picked it and put it to my ear "hello mum"

"My lovely princess" she said sounding excited. "I have missed you seriously mum" I said. "No need to do that anymore princess, am here already, that's why I called" she said sounding happy. I quickly turned back searching everywhere for her but I can't find her. "Mum I can't see you" I said still looking round. "Come outside the school" she said. I quickly left the field and went outside the school compound. I got there and looked around for her but still the same. "Mum I can't find you" I said feeling eager to see her. "It was a joke my dear" she said laughing. I fell so bad about it "why mum I miss you so much" I said almost crying. "I miss you too dear" I heard the voice at my back very close to me. I turned back and saw her, I quickly jumped at her feeling very happy. She hugged me tight patting my back. She released from the hug me and held my hand "Huh my princess has lose some weight, what should we do" my mum said looking at me. "It's ok mum, I don't want to turn to a pig" I said smiling. We both laughed out loud. "I have came to checked where we'll be staying around here, its not too far from your camp,I had made all the necessary arrangements for it. we will soon move in like two day from now"she said smiling. "Why not tomorrow mum? Have missed you a lot"I said. "No, I need to take care of my business before we'll move in so I can continue going to work"she said smiling. "OK mum"I said in agreement. "Are you having any class right now?"she asked looking around. Some students were hanging around the school while some were outside the school compound. "I can see you guys are on break right?"my mum asked looking around. "Yes, but am not having any class until evening, then am having practice"I said. "Music practice?"she asked. "No, dancing practice"I said smiling. "But you're not that good at dancing"my mum said looking surprised. "Why did I come to Karen school? Believe me you'll be surprise at my performance if I show you"I said smiling. "And we'll be having a showcase in next three days from now, then, you should come and see your princess performance. That will be my first stage performance"I said feeling happy about it. "Dancing showcase? Wow I will really love to see that"she said smiling. "Will you follow me to see the place we'll be moving into?"she asked looking at me. "Yes mum, let me go and have a look"I said and we both left for the place.

When we got to the house, it was nice neat but not big as our former house. My mum opened the small gate and we went inside. The compound was neat and tidy. With some beautiful flowers planted round the compound. I really love this place better,. We entered the house and everywhere was neat. It was a two bedroom flat. We entered and my mum showed me my room to be. The place was so nice, I opened the window and can see all what's going on outside. I love the view of what am seeing here. I saw a window opened from next flat, breeze was blowing the curtain and I can see the room. I saw a guitar by the wall and some paper and stuffs on the table . I can see the view clearly. "Why will they forget to close the window"I said to my self peeping through the window. Although the flat is bigger and its storey building. The house was nice as well. I Closed the window and went outside the room to meet my mum. "Mum I really love it here. It's nice and beautiful"I said to my mum smiling. "I always get what's better for my princess"she said. We stayed longer talking about this and that I checked the time and it's almost 4:20pm. "Mum I need to go to practice now, am late already"I said taking my bag. "Ok let's go. Am also leaving for home"she said and we both left together. She took a taxi and I waved at her as the driver drove off in front of my school. I entered the compound and rushed to the practice room because am 30minute late already.

Jason's POV

I got to the practice room and found only nana and jude but can't find Quincy, where would she has gone to? I couldn't find her anywhere in school, I want to apologise to her very well for my behavior last night. I know what I did was wrong but one side of me didn't regret it, because I have feelings for her. I don't understand how I manage to fall for Quincy, she's not and easy girl and we always quarrel anytime we're together. She's fearless and arrogant, But I find her cute and amusing. and I don't think she can ever accept me because I know she doesn't like me at all to start with."Are we not having practice today?"jude said after we waited like 30minutes for her. "Let's wait a little longer"I said to them. We waited and waited then I decided to start the practice. She came rushing inside"am so sorry for coming late Guys. Please forgive me"she said bowing to us. I feel so happy and relieved to see her come to practise. And I can see the expression on her face, she feels happy about something.

: (My beautiful love song)

"Why are you late?"nana asked her. "Sorry something urgent came up"she said smiling. I guess it's something good because she's smiling brightly. We started the practice and am surprised by her performance, she did everything so perfectly without us having to start again. We practiced everything from the beginning and we ended the practice there. "Wow, am really impressed by your performance" jude said raising his thumb up to her. She smiled nodding her head. "Now we're good to go for the showcase"nana said happily. We stayed longer while nana and Quincy were gisting and laughing. I guess Quincy is in a very good mood today. But what is she happy about? I just don't get it. I stared at her the whole time Admiringly, she looks pretty when she smiles. She's also very pretty and has a natural beauty even without makeup or fashion dresses like Helena, she looks the best. when our eyes met, I quickly stared away. When it's 7:10 we all prepare to go home, Jude and nana went home as usual. I also wants to leave but I waited so that I can get to apologise properly to her about last night. She stood up and picked her bag to move out"erm... Quincy"I called her name. She didn't look at me but pretend as if she didn't hear me. She went on heading towards the door and I quickly went to her, blocking the exit"please excuse me"she said looking up at me. Am a bit taller than her, she's of average height and has a normal weight."am so sorry Quincy, please forgive me"I said pleading to her. I don't like how she's acting towards me. She wasn't throwing any fit or mad at me and that makes my heart more heavier. I want her to act as she always did, even if she slapped me,I deserved it. but she was quite not saying a word, She was just looking at me. "Quincy please am so sorry please, I think I overstepped the line"I said pleading to her. She sighed and tried to move out I held her hand back, but she forced it from me and turned to face me"what are you sorry about? The kiss? About the news or about what helena did to me? I can't just understand you a bit. What do you take me for? Am I that simple to you?"she said angrily. Tears has gathered in her eyes as she talk. I feel so sorry and hurt to see her cry. "I think my heart must be stupid to fall for someone like you. I tried really hard not to fall for you, but what can I do about this stupid heart of mine that keeps beating hard for you?. I promise to forget about you totally after this showcase, and let us not bump into each other again in future"she said with tears rolling down her cheek. My heart feels so hurt to hear those words from her. I don't know how to explain it but I also feel the same way. I don't know what to say again to calm her, She turned to leave me but I pulled her back and kissed her. She struggle to pull herself from me but I held her tight, She hit me with her hand to free her self from me, but I won't let her go instead I kissed her more. After the kiss she can do all what she want with me, she can slap or curse me but I won't regret kissing her this time. She surrendered herself to me and stayed calm as I kissed her. Then I stopped and moved my lips from her slowly, i held her shoulders with my hands looking straight into her eyes "Quincy am very sorry for everything. I don't know you have this kind of feelings for me. To be sincere, I also feel the same way about you. I fell for you even though we're always quarrelling and fighting each day, I can't just understand my heart, please am sorry Quincy" I said to her. She looked at me not saying a word. She sobbed and hugged me tight. "Am sorry for being mad at you" she said sobbing. I took her hand and looked straight into her eyes "I love you Quincy but I was afraid to say this because it might sound crazy to you" I said looking at her. I wiped the tears on her face gently with my thumb finger. I moved my face closer to her slowly, I gave her enough space to reject it if she likes. But she didn't move an inch. I kissed her slowly and she kissed me back placing her hand on my waist. I moved her closer to me kissing her more deeper pushing in my tongue. I can feel her tongue under mine, she wrapped her hand around my waist and the kissing becomes more deeper. She stopped trying to withdraw but I was not ready to let her go, so I kept it on And we continue. After a long kiss and deep kiss, I stopped and we moved our lips from each other feeling satisfied.

Quincy's POV

After a long and passionate kiss we stopped and he hugged me. I feel so relieved and calm "I can't believe this is real, Jason of all people confessed his love to me and kissed me. The person I always find arrogant and annoying, I can't just believe what's happening, It's like a dream to me. He released me from the hug and looked straight into my eyes. "Quincy Will you date me?" he asked looking at me

Of course I will be happy to do that, but what of his fans? Jason is the main focus of most girls in campus. To think of me, ordinary Quincy dating someone like him, it will be a hard thing for me to handle but what should I do?

Should I date him and be the target of some mean girls in school. Or should I reject him and take the pain with me forever?

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 15

But I also think of Helena, she will see me as a betrayer, because I know she has feelings for Jason. I just don't know how to go about this. "Quincy I need your answer please" he said holding my hands. "I can't do that, am not bold enough to date someone like you" I replied. "What is wrong with us dating, since the news is trending in school, let's do that and date for real. It's nothing bad" he said squeezing my hands lightly. "I just confessed to you how I really feel about you, so that my mind will be free, but I can't date you" I said and withdrew my hands slowly from his. He was looking at me surprisingly, wondering why am acting that way, but I know why am doing it, I don't want any misunderstanding again between Helena and I again. I don't want to be greedy, she said earlier that am out of their league, and that is true, my parents are not as rich as theirs so am not worth dating him. "Let's just stay normal as we were, before today ok" I said looking up at him. He shook his head in disagreement "why are you like this quincy? You said you loved me but why can't we be together?" he asked. "It's nothing, please let's just stay friends" I replied. I stared at him for a while before opening the door to go out. "I prayed you won't regret this later" he said as I opened the door to move out. I stopped still holding the handle of the door. "the decision you made today, I hope you wouldn't regret it later." he added as I turned my back to him.

I moved out slowly closing the door behind me. I walked slowly through the passage. "Its ok quincy, you won't regret it. You made the right decision ok" I thought to myself walking back to hostel.

Two days later.....

My mum and I were sitting in the living room in our new home. I packed my stuffs from the hostel and brought them home. Everything was set neatly and moderate like our former house. I really love it here, it's peaceful and quite.

"Are you not having practice today?" my mum asked. "That's 4:pm, it's our last practice though, and tomorrow is the performance am really happy. Even if we don't win tomorrow, I will be happy that I went on stage" I said to my mum smiling. "I will really love to see that" my mum said. I excused myself to use the bathroom.

I went to my room and use the bathroom for seconds. I came out and went to the window, I opened it and looked outside, I can see the window of the flat next to us opened again. I stretched my neck to looked inside the room, because the curtain was showing half of the room from the side of the window. I looked through the half open but I can't see much. I only saw a guitar by the wall and some musical stickers on the wall. A little girl came to the window and our eyes met and I quickly closed my window. I was very shocked to see that face suddenly appeared like a ghost. The girl has a long fringe hair, with round face. She was so pretty and small.

I popped my head slowly to look through my window and I can see she has closed the window already. "Is a ghost living in that house?" I said, talking to myself. I quickly went out to join my mum in the living room. I sat beside her, and I noticed she was holding something shinny in her hand. When she saw me, she quickly hid it in her skirt. I went to sit beside her "mum what was that?" I asked, looking at her. "It's nothing dear" she said smiling. "I should prepare something for us to eat" she said standing up. She walked to the kitchen but something dropped from her body and she didn't notice. I picked it up, and saw it's a ring. "Why is she having this ring? Is this from my father?"I said looking at it. She came out of the kitchen and saw me holding the ring. I looked at her and asked about the ring. "That's the only memory of your father I have with me"she said. I looked at the ring and smiled. "It's so pretty, how I wish I saw my dad before he died" I said holding the ring. "He must be great person, for you to like him"I said looking at my mum. "There's a lot about him you don't know, but I will tell you later when I have the time"my mum said. "Thanks mum, I will really like to know more about him"I said. "And this"I said raising up the ring to her. "Can I have it?"I requested. "Yes dear, but you can't lost that ok"she said. "Thanks mum. I can have this next to me all the time and see it as a precious gift from my father"I said looking at the ring.

We talked about so many stuffs before I finally prepare for practice.

I went out of the house, heading to practice. I closed the gate behind me and was out on the street. I looked at the gate of the building next to us, wondering if anybody lives there or I just saw a ghost back there. I moved closer to the big gate looking at it. Suddenly, the gate was making some sounds like someone is opening it to come outside. I tried to move away from there before the person could open it and found me at their gate, but I was too late. The person opened the gate and I was surprise to see who came out of the flat, so he's the person that lived next to us?. I guess that's his room next to my window. We were staring at each other in surprise.

Episode 16

"Why are you here?"Noah asked holding his power bike to his side. "So you live here"I said looking at the building. "Yes this is where we live. And you what are you doing here?"he asked looking at me. "Well we also just moved here yesterday"I said pointing to our flat. "So, we're neighbors again"he said smiling. "Yes we are"I said and we both laughed.

He pushed his power bike out of the gate and someone closed it from inside. "So how is your practice going?"I asked him. "Uhm we are really trying, and everything is moving good as I expect"he said. "Since today is the last practice, we have to do our best for better results tomorrow"I said. "That's true" he said and sat on his bike."get on and let's go before we get late to practice"he said wearing his helmet. He handed the second helmet to me and I took it."thanks"I said and put it on. I sat at the back seat"hold me tight am ready to drive"he said starting the engine. I wrapped my arms around his waist resting my body on his back. He looked down at my hands and focused back on the bike and He drove off.

We arrived at school and I got down from his bike. "Bye see you later"I said and rushed to practice.

Noah's POV

She got down and left for her practice. I smiled to myself as she left. Oh my God, She forgot to take off the helmet. But she went on rushing for practice without looking back.

Quincy is a very special lady to me, I had a crush on her since high school although she took me as a friend but I want her more than that, I want to tell her about my feelings but I don't know how she'll feel about it. she doesn't keep anything from me. She prefer telling me her secrets than telling her female friends. I like her because, she's a lively person and she act like herself and doesn't act fake or fear anyone. She will tell you what she's capable of saying behind you to your face. In shot, she's an interesting girl. I prayed one day I can have the courage to tell her how I really feel about her. I don't want her to feel uncomfortable about it because she never see me as a guy.

I packed my bike at the packing lot and went for practice.

Quincy POV

I rushed to the practice room and met Jason, jude and nana,waiting for me again. "Am sorry for coming in late"I said apologizing to them. Instead of them to talk about my lateness, jude and nana started laughing loud. "Oh my God, You look like an avenger"nana said pointing to my head. I touched my head and can feel the helmet. "What is this?"I murmured to myself and quickly take it off. I dressed my hair properly with my hands. "You're really funny quincy"jude said still laughing. I placed the helmet and my bag on the floor at one angel of the room. I looked at jason who is not finding it funny. He was just staring at me awkwardly.

"You're late again"he said standing up. "Am sorry for that"I said apologizing to him. "It's ok let's start practice"he said and we all prepare for practice.

We practiced from the beginning to the end of the song and it seems everything is ok now. When we finished the practice, I went out to use the toilet. I entered and saw Helena coming out. She stopped in front of me and I want to use that chance to tell her the news is fake. "Helena I need to clear something to you"I said looking at her. She folded her arms together looking at me."and what do you want to lie about again?"she asked in a non friendly tone. I sighed and looked at her"you don't need to be mad at me, I know how you really feel about jason, I know you like him..."

"And why did allow him to kiss you know all this? You thought I didn't see that?"she cuts in. "We are not dating. Believe me, there's a misunderstanding. I can't stab you in the back, as a friend"I said. She smiled briefly and moved closer to me. "Seriously, do you just say we're friends? You must be kidding me. Don't you see we're different? How dare you say you're my friend?"she asked angrily. "See let me tell you something, birds of the same feather flock together. Do you even have money than me? My father can feed your whole family for years"she said looking at me like am just a trash. "What? Helena you're going too far with your words, I only want to come clean with you, you don't have the right to insult my family ok?"I said staring back into her eyes. "And if I do, what can you do about it? Will you slap me? Or will you Sue me? I just don't know what you can do to it"she said sounding more annoying. She moved closer to my ear"hey know your place from now on, you're nothing but a pauper to me. So don't show up when we rich kids are playing. And stay away from jason because you don't even worth him"she said and moved out. I stood there not saying a word but looks pitiful and helpless. I brought out the ring my mum gave me, i used it as pendant and wore the necklace. I hold it in my hand with tears rolling down my cheek.

Where have I gone wrong? Why are this rich kids like looking down on poor people? Is it my fault that I was born poor?"I thought to myself. I sobbed looking at the ring. "Dad what she said is so painful, is it my fault I was not born rich?"I said looking at the ring.

I went out of the female toilet and sat at a corner crying out my heart"I hate not having a father. Good thing she can brag about her father wealth. But I don't have any to brag with"I said crying. I faced the ground burying my face down with tears dropping. I noticed someone standing in front of me. I raised up my head sobbing, and I saw jason standing in front of me.

: (My beautiful love song)

Episode 17

I stood up on seeing him. He brought out his handkerchief and tried to wipe my tears but I moved my face from him"I don't know what the problem is but you shouldn't cry anywhere"he said. He took my hand and placed the handkerchief on it. He went on leaving me there. I cried even more when he left and wiped my tears with the handkerchief. "I think this is useful"i said looking at the soaked handkerchief. It really smells good just like him and looks expensive. I went back to the practice room and kept the handkerchief in my bag. "Oh quincy what happened to your face?"nana asked looking at me. "It's nothing, something got into my eyes"i said putting on a fake smile.

When practice ended we all prepared to go home. I took my bag and walked out of the practice room feeling sad. I got outside the school compound and thought Noah would have gone home already since it's Almost 7pm so, I waited for a taxi. A red sport car stopped beside me and wind down the glass,I bent my head a little to see the person"get in and let me drop you"jason said looking at me. "Don't worry, I will take a taxi"I said to him and straighten my back. He got out of his car and came to me"I just want to help you, so get In it's getting dark" he said looking at me. "Hey"I heard Noah's voice behind me. I quickly turned to him"I thought you left"I said smiling. "No, practice was just late"he said. Jason looked at both of us and faced me"your friend is here, so see you tomorrow"he said. "Hy dude" he said to noah and they both shook hands. He went into his car and drove off.

"Do you guys know each other?"i asked him. "Yes, I know him. When I first came here jason and I were enemy because, we compete with music and dance all the time. But later, we became friends through this music. And we see ourselves as friends and not rivals"he said smiling. "Wow that's so touchy"I said placing my hand on my chest. We both laughed and he went for his power bike.

We left for home early and says our goodbye in front of our gate. I got inside and went to my mum's room but she slept off Already. I covered her body well with the blanket and saw her holding something, I took it gently from her not to wake her up, And saw a picture of a man. The man was still so young and handsome. I saw the ring he was wearing and it was similar to the one I have with me. I brought out the necklace and compare the ring to the one in the picture, The looked similar a lot. "Could it be this guy"I said in a whisper not to wake my mum. She moved her hand and turned to the other side. I quickly hide it behind me thinking she wants to wake. I went to my room with the picture and sat on my bed. I looked at the picture again wondering how he dies. "How does my father die? I need to know how he end up dying before I was born"I thought to myself looking at the picture.

To be continued tommorw good night...

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 18

I kept the picture inside my drawer and closed it. I stood up from my bed to change into my night wear. I looked through my window and looked straight to The window in front. The curtain was covered well this time but the reflections of the light is showing all what's going on in the room. I can see him moving in his room from end to end. I wonder what he is doing walking around in the room. He later sat on his bed and took up his guitar. He played it and I can hear the sound from that distant, but not that loud. I stood by the window feeling the sound of the guitar. I closed my eyes nodding my head to the sound. The sound stopped suddenly and I wonder why it stopped. I opened my eyes and found him staring at me from his window. I was surprised to see him there. I quickly waved my hand at him. He waved back at me saying something I can't hear. I wonder what he was saying, he waved at me again and close the curtain. Soon the light went off In his room and I also went to bed.

D-day of the showcase.....

Jason and jude dressed In white shirt and white trouser, and a black shoe. While nana and I wore a white flayed gown with black boots. Noah's group wore black from head to toe like a grim reaper.

Noah's group were the first to go on stage. They showed their dance, and the moves were so good and ok. "Wow they really danced well, especially Helena and Noah, I love their moves" nana said looking at them. "Do you think we can win?" nana asked facing Jason. "It's ok we can't lose hope, let's try our very best" Jason replied.

Soon they finished the dance and we were called up on stage. I feel so nervous seeing all the crowd. I looked down at the crowd searching for my mum, I saw her waving her hand at me in the front. I smiled and feel happy to see her. Then, we were asked to start. They played the music and we showed them what we've got.

When we finished and the rest showed their performance and the winner was announced.

I was so happy we came second while Noah's group took the first place. But Jason was not happy with the result.

Jason's POV

I don't like the fact that we came second, the rest were happy but I was not. I excused myself to use the toilet. I went to the male toilet and met Noah urinating. I went to his side and urinate. "Your performance was good" I said complementing him. "This is my first time winning you on stage" he said smiling. I smiled and nodded my head in agreement. "See you later in school" he said and left. I walked back to meet others and saw Helena coming, she stopped in my front smiling. "I love your performance" she said smiling. I know that's not where she's going. I nodded my head to her in response. "Why are you not saying anything? Anyway my dad is discharged from hospital today" she said smiling. "That's good" I said briefly but I was relieved inside that he was discharged at last. She looked at me wildly "is that how you should react?" she said looking at me. "Ooh seriously, am very happy he was discharged. That's a good news" I said smiling. She was also happy with what I said. "Satisfied" I said not smiling this time. I tried to walk away but she held my hand "Jason why are you acting cold towards me?" she asked holding my hand. I looked at her not saying anything. "You've changed a lot Jason. Was it because of that gold digger?" she asked referring to Quincy. "Why do you call her that? What does she have to do with me changing? Helena please stop making things hard for me" I said looking at her. "Jason please you have to wake up, she's nothing but a wrench" she said sounding annoying. "And what are you? Don't go around calling people bad names, and do you know what? You're the worst" I said and forced my hand from her. I left her there and went to others.

Helena POV

You're right am worst, but you made me this way and I can still do more unless you leave that wrench. I thought to myself watching him as he left. Then I looked my right and saw Quincy looking at me. She came to me and stood before me "it's right am not rich as you and I don't wear designer cloths or have an expensive car like you do. But that doesn't mean I don't have my pride. You go around boasting about your wealth but all what you have, do you work for them." she asked and I was very angry with what she said. "You can't just look down on others because you're rich. And when we first met why do you pretend to be nice and hide this ugly side of you?" she said and my anger became uncontrollable. "What? What do you know? How dare you judge me like that" I said angrily. "You're wealthy but why acting like a beggar?" she asked again sounding more annoying. I raised up my hand and slapped her. "Will you shut that stupid mouth of yours?" I said angrily. She held her face looking at me. "I won't take this anymore" she said glaring at me seriously. She grabbed my hair and I also did the same to her. We started fighting each other "let me go" I said holding her hair. I pushed her to the ground and she scratched her hand on the floor. Her palm was bleeding and I smiled in satisfaction. A woman came running to us "what do you think you're doing?" the woman said and helped Quincy up. "Mum it's ok" she said looking at the woman. "What do you mean it's ok when you're bleeding?" the woman asked looking at her hand. Did she just called the woman her mum?. I laughed out loud. "What? So this is your mum? I almost mistaken her for a beggar back there" I said looking at the woman. She slapped my face so hard that I staggered back to the wall. "I can see you have no manners" she said looking at me angrily "Do you just lay that dirty hand on me?" I asked looking at her. She stared back at me like someone that is ready to give more of it, if I should say anything bad again.

I held my face looking at both of them.

Quincy's POV

My mum slapped her for what she said. "My dad will Sue you for hitting me, and I will make sure of that" she said and stormed off. I looked at my mum who's very angry at what she said. "Mum it's ok, let's go" I said to my mum. "Is this what you go through in school? Did I send you here for them to pick on you?" my mum asked with pity in her voice. "It's ok mum, she's just too rude" I said holding her. We left the scene and my mum help me put plaster on the bruise. She left for home in a bad mood, after I told her I will come home when the showcase end. I want my mum to be happy for me today but, Helena ruin everything. She left home sadly for what Helena did to me.

I went back to the guys, they were all happy and celebrating but I just sat on a chair not in the mood to play or celebrate with them. Jason's fans brought gifts for him and he was busy signing autographs for his fans. I looked at him from where I sat. And when he looks at my direction, I will quickly stare away.

After everything was over, we all prepare to go home when it getting late already. I changed my cloth and went out to take taxi home because I don't want my mum to be worried. I got outside and met Noah"hey Quincy"he greeted on sighting me. I nodded my head in response. He moved closer to me"Quincy I can tell from your expression that, something is wrong"he said looking at me. "Please Noah, I want to be alone"I said in a weak voice. He stared at me for a while and nodded his head in agreement"alright see you later"he said and I left. I stopped a taxi and went home. When I got inside our gate, I noticed something strange. I touched my neck and can't find the necklace again. I checked well and put down my bag. I searched inside my bag for it but I can't find it there. What should I do? My mum can't find out I lost it. I can't lost that"I thought to myself panicking. I got up and checked the time, it's 8:10 already, And it's dark. "I have to find it"I said and rushed out back to school. Some students were still hanging around the school compound while some are going home already. I saw nana and jude coming towards me"hey you left early,why"jude Asked. "And I think she's not in a good mood today"nana added looking at me. "Am sorry guys, see you in school on Monday"i said and left them. I went straight to the scene where Helena and I fought. I switch on the touch of my phone because, the place was dark. I searched everywhere for it but can't find it. I heard foot steps behind me and I quickly went to hide behind the wall to see who's coming. But I can't hear it any more so I peeped moving slowly to the edge of the wall.

I forgot my song note at the record room this morning while practicing, so I went back to the record room to pick the book, I took it and was heading out, I walked Down the passage and saw reflection of light at a corner, so I moved towards it and walked slowly. Suddenly, the light went off and I wonder what it was. Because, the place was silent. "Was that a ghost?"I thought to myself looking around the place. I moved slowly towards it and I saw the reflection at a corner. I move to the edge of the wall peeping slowly. The person appeared before me suddenly, and we both screamed in fear. she continue screaming and fainted out of shock. I also fell back to the ground. I moved closer to her and see it's Quincy. I shook her body lightly to wake her up"Quincy stand up"I called her name but she did not move. I moved closer and moved my face close to her to check if she's still breathing, she opened her eyes slowly and our eyes met she screamed and fainted again. "Oh my God, why is she so shocked?"I said messing my hair with my hands. I took her hand and rubbed them lightly. I like how am seeing her so close to me, She is so pretty. I thought to myself looking at her. "Quincy you have to wake up, it's getting late" I said looking at her. She opened her eyes and looked at me. She tried fainting again "not again Quincy" I shouted on her and she opened her eyes wide. She quickly got up on seeing me. "W. .why are you... Here?" she asked stammering. I looked at her and smiled. "Why are you smiling?" she asked again. "Because you're so cute" I replied her. "It's late already let's go" I said and took her hand. She looked at me and removed her hand from mine. "can't I hold your hand as a friend?" I asked looking at her. She looked at me and faced down. I took her hand and we both went out.

Episode 20

She looks so worried about something "why did you come back to school?" I asked her as we walked out of the compound. "Am looking for my necklace" she replied. "Necklace? How did you lost it?" I asked her but she was silent for a while before she reply me "It dropped from me, and I came back to search for it, but I can't find it anywhere." she said looking sad. "You can go ahead, I have to search for it very well" she said trying to go back. "You can't, it's dark already and students are leaving school, it's late you have to go home now" I said to her as she turned to leave. She turned back to me and looked like someone who her life depends on the necklace. "Ok, describe it for me and I will buy the exact same one for you, you can just go back" I said. "That's so special to me, I can't just lost it like that. I don't want another one because that was from my late father" she said almost crying. "Am sorry" I said apologizing to her. "I didn't know it was from your late dad" I added looking at her in pity. "I want it back, I can't lose that. My mum will feel sad about me losing it, because she warned me not to lost it" she said crying. She sat down on the floor weeping. I don't know what to do About it, but I want to help. I bent beside her and took her up. "it's ok, I will find it for you early tomorrow, I promise" I said to calm her. I brought out my handkerchief and wiped her tears. She look at me sobbing "am sorry for bothering you" she said. "It's ok, let's go" I said and gave her the handkerchief.

We both left and I took her in my car. When we got to their building she told me to stop there and she got down. "Thank you so much jason" she said and waved at me. I waved back and she went in. after seeing her closed the door, I also drove home.

Helena's POV

I got home and saw dad and mom watching movie In the living room. I greeted them and pecked my dad on his cheek. "My princess is home" my dad said smiling. "How was the showcase?" my mum asked smiling. "Dont you trust your daughter? Our group came first" I said smiling. "Wow that's very good of you. And what of jason?" my mum asked. I changed my expression on hearing his name"well, his group took second place"I said. "Wow I can't believe jason took second place. First time, you won him in a show"my dad said looking surprise. "Jason has changed a lot just because of one wretched girl in my school"I said to them. "What? A girl?"my mum asked. "Yes believe me, jason like her and I don't know why he's getting himself involve with someone like her."I said. "I think she's a good girl for jason to like her,"my dad said smiling. "What? Good girl my foot, she's a gold digger and I know she seduced that innocent jason."I said angrily. My dad looked at me and smiled. "And why did you hate her?"he asked looking at me. "I just hate her with no reason, she's really annoying"I said. "Dad can you believe her mother slapped me today?"I said looking at my dad. My mum quickly jumped up on her feet on hearing this."what? She slapped you?"my mum asked looking at my face. "What happened? Why did she slapped you?"my dad also asked. I know they won't take that because they loved me and always support me in everything I say. And they can't stand someone laying their hand on Their daughter."Dad I didn't do anything, her daughter slapped me just because I told her to stay away from jason, then I tried to defend myself by fighting back. But her mother came and slapped me"I said crying. "How on earth can she do that to my princess?"my mum said angrily. I cried even more telling them my face still hurt from the slap. "It's ok darling, I promise they will pay for it"my dad said patting me. "Sorry dear, let me call our doctor, to come check you"my mum said picking her phone from the couch. "Its ok mum no need to call the doctor. I just want her out of my school because she's giving me hard time in school."i said still crying. "If that's what you want, I will do that for you. She will leave tomorrow, don't worry just leave the rest for daddy ok"my dad said and hugged me as I cried. I smiled to myself in satisfaction as he hugged me.

I went to my room feeling good and relaxed. "Good thing I don't have to see her disgusting face anymore and she won't be around jason anymore"I said feeling happy. I brought out the necklace I took from her when I pushed her to the ground, It was a ring pendant. I looked at it wondering who gave her the ring, "so she received the ring from jason"I concluded looking at it. "This have to be mine and not yours, jason should have given me the ring and not you"i said looking at the ring. "That means it came to the rightful owner"i said smiling to myself. I put it into my drawer and closed it.

Episode 28

My mum came to me and sat gently beside me on the sofa. "Am sorry quincy, forgive your innocent mother"she said patting me. I looked at her and wiped off my tears"mum, why did you lie, what happened between you and him? Tell me"I said looking at her. She sighed and began the story.....

"Back then in university David and i loved each other so much, we dated for the whole time in school. His parents were super rich and I came from the middle class not too rich and not poor. But he loved me so much and don't care about what others says. After we graduated he proposed to me and promised me marriage then, he gave me the ring and he also has a pair for himself. I was so happy to get married to David, but Tina(Helena's mom)also want David, her mother also wants him for her. Tina is the only daughter of her parents and she always get what she wants at all cost. Her parents were also rich. My dad works in his father's company and that was the only relationship between us. she like David so much and did all she can for him to love her back but David didn't give her any attention at all, back then, all he cares for was me and only me. Tina planned all tricks to tear us apart but the love between us was too strong to break. She threatened me times without numbers to leave David but all to no avail.

Her mother invited me to visit her one day. And told me to leave David for her daughter. She even promised to give me all I asked for if I should leave him but I turned deaf ear.

David and I has gone too far than that.

After I refused to leave David, Tina's mother drives my father out of the company. And made life like hell for me and my family. My dad begged me to leave David and find another guy or else we'll live a miserable life. I think of all what's happening to my family because of my teenage love, and then decided to give up on david.

I called David on phone to meet up with me. That day I went to his house because his father left for business trip. And his mom was not around. When I got to his house, I told him about everything and asked we should breakup and go our separate ways although it's painful and heartbreaking. He said he won't do that, because he loved me so much but i told him I can't go on with the relationship anymore. He begged me not to Leave him and promise to protect me from any harm. I cried that night because I also don't want to leave him, but I have no choice, I can't watch my family suffer because of me. He wiped off my tears and said he won't leave me. He kissed me and we made love that night for the first time.

After some days, my parents relocated and we left the area and went far away from the neighborhood. I cried all night for David, I missed him so much and wish I could go back to him. A week later, I heard David and tina are getting married. It was a heartbroken for me, I planned to forget about everything and move on.

After some weeks, I discovered some changes in me. And my mum took me to the hospital for tests. To my greatest surprise, the doctor said, am two months pregnant. My heart was so heavy and I cried so much because the father of my unborn baby is happily married to another woman. My mum consoled me and promise to stay by my side. My father insulted and called me all sorts of name, but my mum always side with me, my dad even said he will send me back to David but my mum begged him not to do that.

When my pregnant reaches 8months, my mum and dad both died in a car accident. When I heard this, I fainted and was taken to the hospital, That day I gave birth to you. After some days I got discharged and went home. I cried all night for the lose of my parent. It feels like the world has come to end for me because i find it difficult to fed you not to talk of myself. I even stole some baby food at a store one day to feed you with it, because, I can't afford the money for it, the owner caught me and I was given the beaten of my life that day. I begged from people to feed you even though I starved all night. I continue living like that until I found a job for myself and took very good care of you. I prefer dressing in rags because I want you to wear good clothes and live a normal life like other kids. I worked really hard to take care of you till this stage you're in right now. So please don't see me as a bad mother, I lied that your father was dead because u don't want you to worry about it." She said all this with tears rolling down her cheek, my heart melted and I felt pity for her. I also cried as she said all this. "It's ok, I love you mum" I said hugging her. We both cried and consoled each other.

Few minutes later, I took her to her room to rest, I went back to my room thinking about all what my mum said. I was so sad and heartbroken. Should I forgive my father or should I hate him forever? I thought to myself crying silently in my room.

Episode 29

Jason's POV

I checked on helena in the hospital and she's yet to wake up. She went under surgery because her head was injured Badly and she wasted too much of blood. She's breathing with oxygen and the doctor said, she'll be alright soon. I got home and Mr David(Helen's dad) called for me. I went to him wondering why he called for me. he asked me about the owner of the necklace I have the other day. I don't know why he's so much interested in the owner, but I told him it's for quincy. He asked who quincy is, and I told him she's my friend, and she's the one back in the hospital. He was surprised and I can notice that In him. He said I can leave, and I left the house thinking all sorts of things. Why is Mr David interested in that necklace? Does he knows Quincy's father or is he.... "no no no way" I thought to myself as I headed back home.

Quincy's POV

I woke up early and prepare myself for school. I checked my mum's room and she was still sleeping, because of the stress she went through yesterday she must be weak to go to work this morning. I thought to myself and closed the door. I went out of the house and took a taxi to school. When I got to school, I saw something that surprise me, I saw the man(Helena's dad) waiting by his car, I wonder why he's here, maybe he brought helena to school. I concluded and walked towards the school building. "Miss"he called walking to me. I stopped and looked at him"you mean me?"I asked pointing to myself. "Yes you, please can you spare me some minutes of your time?"he said looking at me. "sorry but Am late for class, I need to go now" I said and moved on. He stopped me by holding my hand. I don't know why my body reacted that way towards him, I suddenly feel annoyed and mad. I jacked my hand from him looking angry "sir, leave me alone. I said I have a class. you can't just touch strangers as u like" I said looking at him. He looked at me in surprise. I walked out on him and went straight to class. "Hey, hey" I heard Noah's voice from behind. I turned to face him and he quickly walked up to me. We both left for class together "how is your health?" he asked. "Am fine, that's why I came to school" I said smiling. "Wow that's good" he said smiling.

After class, the Dean called for me, and asked about my health, I told him am all better now. He asked if I'll be able to shoot the photos the next day because they need it urgently. I told him am ready to do that and am available at anytime. I left his office and head to the cafeteria to buy some snacks. On my way there, Jason came to me and held my hand walking beside me. I looked round the school compound and cleared my throat "let go of my hand, people are watching" I said looking at him. He stopped and looked at me "why? Let them see and believe it that we're really dating" he said smiling. He dropped my hand and I was relieved he understands what I mean, but he wrapped it around my shoulder. Oh my God. This stubborn guy won't just listen to me. I thought to myself. When we got to the cafeteria, all eyes were on us, some students even took pictures of us. I feel so uncomfortable. He bought the coffee and handed a cup to me smiling. I received it and we both went out together. We walked side by side in the compound. "So, How is Helena" I asked him. He looked at me and rolled his eyes "so you can still worry about her, after all what she did to you?" he asked looking at me. I smiled and took the cup to my mouth. "You're just too kind hearted, I wish Helena could change and have a pure heart as you" he said. "Is she alright?" I asked him again. "She's still unconscious, but the doctor said she'll be alright" he said. "What on earth did you guys did to each other that day?" Jason asked looking curious. I told him about all what happened that day of the accident and he was so surprised to hear that. We left for class when the bell rang.

When we closed, I walked down The school compound, leaving for home. The man came to me again this time, he begged me seriously almost going on his knee. I accept to talk with him only for 5 minutes. "Am sorry for wasting your time" he apologized and I nodded my head in response. "Can I see the necklace with you please, Jason said you owned it" he said looking at me. The man looked innocent and calm by looking at his face. "Why did you want to see it?" I asked pretending I didn't know anything. "The first time I saw the necklace, it looks familiar to me and I want to confirm it to clear my curiosity" he said. I brought out the necklace and showed it to him "this is it" I said removing it. He looked at it with his mouth opened "why did you have this?" he asked looking at me. "It's for my mum, she asked me to throw it away but I just like it because it's pretty" I said looking at him. "Back in the hospital, you said Mary is your mother, did Mary really gave birth to you?" he asked. "Yes, she's my mum" I replied. "But what of your father, where is he?" he asked looking impatient. "My father died long time ago, I don't have a father" I said to him. He looked at me and his expression changed. "Oh so bad, sorry for that" he said looking at me. "How old are you?" he asked. I sighed and looked at him "sir, I can't tell you that. So if you may excuse me" I said trying to leave. He stopped me begging me to do him a favour. I asked what it is and he asked were my mum and I live. I didn't answer him I just walked out on him and took a taxi home.

I got home and entered the house. I went to my mum's room but can't find her there. I went back to the living room but she was not there "where could be?" I asked myself looking at my wrist watch. I can perceive some delicious meal. I sniffs my nose heading to the kitchen. I entered the kitchen and found my mum there. She was preparing some meals. I dropped my bag and went to join her. "Oh my princess is here" my mum said smiling. I was so much happy to see her smiled again. I quickly took the apron and put it on. I joined her in preparing the dishes. "Why can't you wait for me to come back and prepare this?" I said smiling. "As if she can" my mum said teasing me. "Why mum? I can prepare it better" I said smiling. "The whole kitchen would be turned upside down, if you should prepare a meal yourself" she said smiling. We both laughed out loud.

After preparing the the meal, my mum and I has prepared to start eating then we heard a knock on the door. "Who could it be?" my mum asked looking at me. "I don't know" I said looking at her. "Go and open it" my mum said. I stood up and walked to the door. The person knocked again and I opened the door gently, I was so surprised to see the person at the door. Why is he here? How does he know this place? I thought to myself looking at him.

Episode 30

I stood by the door staring at him. I turned to face my mum, and she was looking at me wondering why I haven't allow the person in. I shut the door and went back to mum. "Who's is? Why are your not letting him in?" my mum asked looking at me. I moved closer to her and whispered "Mr David" I said. She quickly jumped up out of surprise. "What! You mean David Is here?" she asked looking at me. I nodded my head to her. "What should we do? Should we ignore him or let him in" my mum asked looking at me. I also don't know what to do, I just stared at my mum. He knocked on the door again "please let me in, I have a lot to tell you" he said still standing outside. "Open it and let's hear what he have to say" my mum said to me. I went to the door and open it slowly. He looked at me for a while before moving in. He looked round the living room and looked at my mum. The look on my mum's face is not good at all.

"W...why...." my mum tried to say something but her voice started shaking as tears rolled down her cheek. I quickly moved to her side and patted her "mum don't do this again, I don't like seeing you cry" I said wiping the tears on her face. Mr David looked at my mum and went on his kneel. Me and my mum were so surprised. "Mary, please forgive me. I also regretted all what happened to us back then" the man said pleading. "It's not your fault David, I was the one that left you, so no need to blame yourself." my mum said sobbing. "Please stand up David" my mum said to him. He stood up and my mum asked him to sit on the couch. He sat down and so did my mum. "How is mum and dad?" he asked looking at my mum. My mum told him all they died in a car accident 19 years ago. He felt so sorry for my mum. I was looking at him the whole time, he doesn't look like someone that will hurt us, he looks innocent and caring from his behaviour. "How is Tina? I hope you guys are happy together?" my mum said looking at him. He took a long sigh and looked at me "can you excuse us please, we need privacy" he said looking at me. I looked at my mum and she nodded her head to me to do so. I left the living room and went to my room. I sat on bed thinking about a lot of things "I think Helena got her attitude from her mother, crazy bitches" I thought to myself. "What if my Mr David want my mum back, would she agree with him? Then would Helena and I be sisters? Hell no, Never" I thought to myself resting in my bed. "What could they be talking about?" I asked myself. I stood up from my bed and started walking around my room. I feel so restless. I wanted to eavesdrop on their conversation but I hesitated and went back to my room collapsing on the sofa. After thirty minutes they finished whatever they were saying and my mum called me back into the living room. I sat on the couch beside my mum wondering what they both talked about, the man stared at me for a while before he finally set to go. He left and I went to close the door. I went back to my mum and she showed me the envelope he gave her. It was the sum of 100,000 dollars. I opened my mouth in surprise looking at my mum. "Why would you take that from him?" I asked my mum. "It's not like we complained to him that we are suffering, is this pity or what?" I asked my mum feeling bad about the money. "It's ok dear, I also refused it, but he begged me to take it. I can use part of this to settle our rent or what do you think" my mum asked. I nodded my head in agreement. The food we prepared is cold already, we eat some of it before going to bed.

I got to school and not too long a van came from NELL entertainment. It took Jason and I and it drove to the company. When we got there, someone opened the door for us and we stepped down. The company is so huge and beautiful. A man led us into the giant building.

Jason's POV

We entered the building, Quincy seems surprised but I have been here so many times so I was not surprised. The man led us to the place where we'll be having the shoot. Camera men and some stylist are there already and the scene has been prepared. A lady led Quincy to the changing room. And I also went to change.

10 minutes later, I looked at the mirror and was satisfied by what I saw. I went out of the changing room and Quincy is not yet out. 5 minutes later, Quincy came out. My mouth flung open on seeing Quincy. She looks like another different person, my eyes glued on her. "Is she even from this planet? She's too beautiful and hot, is she even the Quincy I know? Helena can't stand her right now" I thought to myself looking at her. "Now let's start" the director's voice brought me back to reality. The way she walked in those heels, she steps like a princess. We shoot photos together in different styles. She's so photogenic and cute. The director asked us to come together and she wrapped her arm around my neck, which makes me swallow hard. "Why am

I nervous, it's not like it's the first time we're this close" I thought to myself with my heart beating fast. "Mr Jason focus" the director said. I smiled and went along with her.

We shoot photos in different cloths and shoes of different fashion. After the photo shoot, the van dropped us in school and left. Students are going home already, I told quincy I will take her home and she agreed with me. When we got to my car, I opened the car door for her acting mr romantic. She looked at me and smiled. She entered and I turned to sit in the driver seat. She was staring at me and I can notice that from the corner of my eyes. She stared at me for long and that makes me feel uncomfortable. I turned to her and caught her eyes on me. She didn't look away but stared deep into my eyes "why? Is something on my face?" I asked her. "I love you" she said smiling. I looked at her surprised "I know you do" I said looking at her. "I love you so much Jason" she said again making my heart race. "I....I know. Stop act....." she shut my mouth with a kiss wrapping her arms around my neck. "Oh my God, this is what have been dying to do since, but she took the first move" I thought to myself as she kissed me. I kissed her back holding her face up to mine. We continue kissing, this is the best kiss have ever had from her. She's so romantic and hot. I have forgotten we're in the car. I touched her body romantically and that make her body vibrate in every touch of my hand. We continue kissing more deeper and I can taste the sweet lips gloss she had on her lips back there, our tongue tangled together in deep kiss. Suddenly a call came in and we quickly broke the kiss on hearing the ringing tone, she moved back to her seat "P..pick your call" she said not looking at me. Then I realised it was my phone ringing. I picked it and was surprise to see the caller. I looked at quincy and picked it. "Hello" I said. "Hello Jason, am feeling better now, can you come to the hospital?" Helena asked on phone. "Am busy today, I will come tomorrow" I said to her and she cuts the line. I looked at quincy who was looking at me, wondering who called on phone. Helena is better but I feel sad about it. What will I do about that girl, I hope she won't try anything crazy to hurt my quincy again. I thought to myself feeling sad about the news that she woke up.

Episode 31

She didn't bother to ask me who called. I dropped my phone and started the engine. I drove out of the school compound. I dropped her in front of their gate. she waved me goodbye and I also went home.

Quincy's POV

I got to school early and walked towards the school building, then I saw Mr David by his car. I bowed my head a little and walked pass him. "Hey" he called. I looked back at him wondering why he called me. I went to him to hear what he has to say to me this time. "I need to talk to you"he said looking at me wieldy. "Ok sir"I said with respect. "I know you hate me, and I don't know the reason you're like that. But I have to confirm something with you"he said looking at me. I wonder what he was talking about. I looked at him, not able to say anything. I know I dislike him, but he's my biological father. Even if what he did to my mum is very bad, it's not his fault and I can't deny the fact that he's my father. I wish I had a father before I discovered about him, but now he's here and I can't do anything, I can't even call him dad even I know that this man is my father. He looked at me and ran his hand through my hair. "What are you doing?"I asked looking at him. He looked at me and smiled"it's nothing, your hair is messed up"he said looking at me. I use my hand to smoothen my hair. "What do you have to confirm?"I asked him. "I will tell you later"he said and went for his car. "That looks wield"I said looking at him as he moved his car out of the school compound. I went on heading to class"hey"I heard Noah's voice from behind. I turned to him and he quickly walked up to me. "Miss super model"Noah said jokingly. I smiled and we both walked towards the class. "I guess you boyfriend is not here yet, so I can have the chance to hang around my friend"he said looking at me. I cleared my throat and faced front. "Seriously, quincy you've been hiding a lot from me these days, am I not your best friend anymore?"he said looking a me. I sighed not saying anything. I know that's true, I don't open up to Noah as before. I have kept my distance from him too much and that was because of jason. I don't get to hang around Noah because I spent most of my time with jason. And I know he will feel bad about it. "It seems you like that guy(jason)"he said not looking at me. I looked at him and stared off. "Am aware of that, and I think I have to back off now"he said smiling. I looked at him not understanding what he meant by the word "back off". "What do you mean by that?"I asked him curiously. "Its nothing, your boyfriend is here"he said looking at jason who's coming towards us. He patted my shoulder playfully and left. "Hey"jason greeted on getting to me. I looked at Noah as he left. I can't just understand why he's saying weird words. He just said your boyfriend? I have never heard that from him before. "What are you looking at?"jason asked tracing my gaze. "It's nothing, how was you night?"I asked him smiling. "It was lonely, because you were not there"he said. I smiled and we both left.

Helena's POV

I laid on the hospital bed watching TV. The doctor said I have to stay three more days for good recovery. I just hate it here, it's boring and not fun at all. But am happy because jason promised to visit me today. As I was watching the TV, an advert came on TV, and I saw quincy and jason on TV, they used them for advertising the latest fashion of some cloths and shoes. On seeing Quincy on TV, I managed to rise up sitting on my bed in surprise. "So, you were finally used for the modeling? Just wait and let me get out of this prison called hospital. I will crushed you down to the bottom"I said angrily. I off the TV and took my phone. I went online and saw the picture of quincy again as the top searched on internet. I went through the comments and they were like....

"Wow, she's a goddess"

"She's too beautiful In those dresses, I wish I had a shape like hers"

"She looks cute with Jason, I love them together"

"Wow, I will buy that fashion dress she's putting on. Lolz"

"I wish I could meet her in person, am her number one fan"

I read all this with my head boiling in anger "you guys are blind, am more prettier than her, she stole my place as the model. she's just a pauper" I said angrily and smashed my phone on the hard floor out of anger. "I won't go easy on you Quincy. I will destroy you once I get out of this place" I thought to myself panting heavily.

Quincy's POV

I went out of the school building heading for home. I noticed people staring at me "what are you guys thinking this time?" I thought to myself looking at people around me. "Wow it's the model queen" a high school student said to his friend. They all rushed to me and I was shocked to see this. "W.....what? Model queen. What are they talking about. I thought to myself looking at them. "She's more pretty in person" a girl said looking at me. "Am your number one of your fans, can you sign an autograph for me?" the girl requested. "What autograph? What are they talking about? Did they mistook me for a celebrity?" I thought to myself still confused as they all rushed to me. A guy came and took my hand, dragging me along with him out and of those bunch of people. He was covering his face with a face cap and was also covering his head with big black Hoodie cardigan. I can't see his face clearly. When we went far from the crowd he dropped my hand and turned to me. He removed his Hood and the face cap. "Jason" I called his name. He smiled at me and smoothen his hair with his hand. "Miss popular" he said smiling. "What do you mean by that?" I asked him curiously. A bus drove pass us and he told me to look at the bus. I look at it and saw my picture on it. I was so surprised to see that. The modeling photos you took as gone viral and now you're miss celebrity, queen of model I think that's the title" he said smiling. "Let me take you home today" he said. He took my hand and we both went to my car.

When I got home, I opened the door and headed straight to the living room. "Why did you hide the fact that Quincy is my biological daughter? If I had known then, I will never leave you and stay by your side but you didn't tell me anything. How am I going to face her now?" I heard Mr David's voice when I was about going in. "And If I had told you about it, what will change? Will you divorce Tina for me?" my mum asked him. "But I will be happy I have my own daughter and will take very good care of both of you. Don't you trust me anymore? You know am not that heartless" He said. I stood by the door listening to all this. "I don't want me and my daughter to suffer. I want a good life for her, I know how Tina and her mother will react over it, that was why I raised her myself" my mum said. "After you left, do you know how much I regretted getting married to Tina? Do you know the hardship I went through?" he said to my mum. "But Tina has your daughter, and I think that should make you happy" My mum said. "What? My daughter? Do you know the hardship she gave me? She's not even worth my love. Do you think Helena is my real daughter? Helena is not my blood and how do you think I will feel after knowing you had my biological daughter?" Mr David said aloud. I covered my mouth with both hands in surprise. "So Helena was an adopted child of Mr David? How funny" I thought to myself still standing by the door.

Episode 32

I moved back then open the door as if I was just coming in. I went straight to where my mum was standing "good evening mum" I greeted her. And also greeted Mr David. He stared at me for a while not saying a word. "Welcome dear" my mum said. "Quincy, I now know why you were acting cold towards me, but I want you to know that I never abandoned your mum and I never abandoned you" he said looking at me. "It's ok Mr David. My mum told me about everything, and from what she said, I think it's not your fault sir. You don't just have enough power to protect your love back then" I said looking at him. "Have you forgiven me?" he asked in a pitiful voice. "Yes I have forgiven you dad" I said even though that word dad seems so hard for me to pronounce out. He looked at me and was surprised to hear that from me. I looked at my mum and she smiled. Mr David hugged the both of us happily.

In class...

Jason and I sat beside each other on the chair. "I will be having the performance next week, So be ready to go on stage with me because you made a promise" Jason said looking at me. "It's ok, I will do that, since it's a promise" I said smiling. "That's my girl" Jason said playfully raising his thumb up at me. I looked at him and smiled. "So, what will you be doing tomorrow, since we'll not be coming to school" he asked. "Nothing, will just be home alone, since my mom will go for her work" I replied. "Then let's do something interesting together" he said sounding funny. "What? Something interesting? W....what are you talking about?" I said almost blushing. He smiled and moved closer to me. He then stroked my hair romantically "I mean let's....." he stopped for a while and smiled. "watch a movie together" he said and brought down his hand. I took a breath of relief on hearing that. "What were you thinking about?" he asked laughing. I cleared my throat and faced him "w....wh..who told you I was thinking about something?" I asked stammering. "You're so cute" he said smiling. "I need to get going now, school is over and we're the only one here" I said standing up. "Let's go together, I will drop you" he said holding my hand. I followed him and we both went out into his car. When we were both seated in the car, He looked at me for a while and moved closer to me. I was surprised looking at him as he got closer to me. He then pulled the seat belt from my side and put it on for me smiling. "You should remember to put that on"he said and sat properly on his seat. He started the engine and we left school. He dropped me off again and drove home. I stood by the gate looking at his car as he left and I smiled to myself. I entered the house and went straight to my room. "Mum!"I called from inside because, I think she should be home by now, But no respond. I went out of my room and went to check her in her room. I opened the door to find the greatest shock of my life"mum!"I called her with tears rolling down my cheek.

I found her in her own pool of blood. I quickly rushed to her side and shook her body roughly"mum wake up, what happened to you mum? Why are you like this?"I asked crying seriously. Then, I saw a knife full of blood beside her. She opened her eyes weakly, "mum what happened? How on earth does this happened to you?"I asked crying. "Ti....tin.....ti...."she tried to say something but she started coughing out blood. I quickly took my phone and called the ambulance. "Mum please hang on, you can't leave me like this, you're my only hope in this world, how do you expect me to leave without you?"I asked her trembling in fear. I cried out loud holding her in my arms. "Qui... Quincy"she called my name. "Yes mum, nothing will happen to you mum. Just hang on ok"I said with tears rolling down my cheek uncontrollably. She held my hand tight looking at me"you have to leave this place now. Quincy, leave me and run away as far as you can go"my mum said with tears dropping from her eyes. I shook my head in disagreement"no, I can't leave you mum. Who did it? Just tell me the person mom"I asked in tears. "G....go quin...."she didn't finish before closing her eyes. "Mum! Mum! Mummy please wake up"I cried out loud shaking her body roughly.

Episode 33

Helena woke up later, and was taking to her room. I sat on the conch feeling sad and was not able to drink the coffee I was given. I think I have to leave this place because, I don't want helena and her mother to feel uncomfortable. "Everything will be ok"Mr David said patting my shoulder gently. He looked at jason and went after helena and her mother. Jason sat gently beside me and held my hands."it's ok quincy, am happy your father it's still alive. You might have a hard time living here with helena and her mother, but I promise to stay with you and protect you"jason said looking at me. I nodded my head and hugged him tight to hold back the tears in my eyes.

1 month later....

Everything has really changed for me.

Mr David took care of me and provide me with so many things. He promised to continue taking care of me to make up with times we were not together. Even though helena and her mother were so mean towards me. They hated me so much, that helena hurts me so many times without number but I let them slide and never reacted to it. I was popular in school for my modeling and the song I sang on stage with Jason. The song was a big hit, and that makes me even more popular in town. Mr David assist me with everything, He makes sure am not lacking anything.

And I always visit my mum in the hospital from time to time. She was put in coma and was giving the best treatments, thanks to Mr David. I hope she'll wake up one day and see her beautiful daughter. I have to ask her what happened to her that day. I promise I won't forgive the person that did that to her.

I prepared for school early, and quickly took my breakfast in my room. I headed downstairs towards the living room and saw Helena coming up, I still stood by the staircase watching her as she came. She tried walking pass me but she missed a step and was about falling, I grabbed her hand to save her from falling, instead of her to thank me, she removed her hand from me forcefully "so you plan to hurt me now. How dare you stand in my way? Can't you see am coming?" she asked angrily. "But I was not the one that caused it, I was only trying to help" I said with a calm voice. "You're not helping me. Can't you get it that I hate you? Your presence here is killing me. You're nothing but a thief. You stole my place in school, you stole Jason from me and now my dad." she said looking straight into my eyes. "You know what? I just wish you sleep and never wake up again one day" she said looking at me in anger. She walked pass me heading upstairs. "Helena what can I do to please you? What can I do to make you accept me as a family" I asked turning to her. She stopped and turned back facing me. "What you can do? I want nothing more than for you to disappear and never show up again. With that, I will be happy and live my life as I please" she said looking at me. She left me and went upstairs. I went down and left the living room for school in a bad mood.

Helen's POV

I left her and went to prepare for school. I just hate that girl for everything. If she hasn't shown up, I will do the modeling. If she hasn't shown up, Jason will be mine and my dad will love only me. I won't just let her be until I see the end of her. I thought to myself.

I got to school and went to music class. I saw her and Jason discussing and laughing about something, I feel so Jealous and annoyed. I went to have my sit beside Hanna still looking at them.

The teacher came in soon and our lesson began.

During break, I left for the cafeteria to buy some snacks. I noticed some fan girl coming towards me. I waved my hand at them smiling as they came, but they walked pass me. I turned back to see who they were rushing to, to my surprise it was Quincy. They all were happy to see her. She signed autographs for them smiling happily. I stared at her in anger. She looked at me and smiled. "Why is she smiling at me? Is she making Jess of me?" I thought to myself and left the place in anger.

At home....

I got home and overheard the maid gossiping about me "helena is just a spoilt brat unlike quincy. Ever since quincy got here, she never give us a hard time. She's very polite and respectful. I just wish she'll be the heir of mr David's company. She's so kind and beautiful" I heard them gossiping. I moved close to where them and they quickly jumped on their feet on seeing me. "Welcome ma" they said bowing to me. "What were you guys talking about? Were you gossiping about me?" I asked in anger. "No ma, we were just discussing" a maid said. "What right do you have to discuss when you're here to work? All of you are fire, I don't want to see you here again" I said raising my voice at them. "Please forgive us. We won't do that again" they begged me. "Can't you hear me? Or you want me to have you locked up? I said get lost" I barked at them angrily. Quincy came in and rushed to the scene. "What happened? Helena why are you sending them away?" she asked looking at us. "Please help us beg her, we don't want to lose our job" one of the maid said holding quincy. "Helena please forgive them. I don't know what happened but am begging you to pardon them for today, they won't do it again" quincy said looking at me and that makes me even more angry. "You just hold it there. Who are you to question me? You think because you have everything is that why you're acting all cool and nice? You think you can control me also?" I said facing her. "You know what? I wish you end up like your mother and both of you can go to hell together" she came closer and gave me a hot slap that landed me on the floor. "How dare you say that? I can take all the insults you've been saying to me, but to my mum, I won't stand it. I can't stand to hear a nothing like you insult my mother. So get that into your rotten skull" quincy said in anger. I was so surprised to see her act this way, since she came into this house, she never did this to me before. Even though I abused and slapped her times without number, she never retaliated back to me. But this one she just did left me with a shock. I held my face still sitting on the floor in surprise.

Episode 34

Quincy's POV

I was so angry when she involved my mum, that I don't know when I raised up my hand and slapped her. She looked at me in surprise still holding her face. "I think my patience will stop here for both you and your mother" I said looking down at her. "Those maids won't leave this house and I will make sure of that" I said and walked out on her.

Helena's POV

I watched her as she went, with my head boiling in anger and evil thoughts towards her. I managed to stand up and headed to my room.

I called my mum on phone and told her about what quincy did to me, my mum was very angry and promised me to pay her back when she returns. I got some ice from the fridge and robbed it gently on my hot cheek.

"You're making everything worse, for what you just did to me" I thought to myself angrily.

My mum came back from work in the evening and sent for quincy. She came downstairs and stood in front of us. "Welcome ma" she greeted. "Keep that to yourself. How dare you lay your hand on my daughter? What right do you have to do that?" my mum asked her angrily. She looked at me and I smiled. "You may be living in this house with us, but I think you're overstepping your boundary" my mum said looking at her. "Am sorry ma, but she started it" quincy said looking at me. "And so? If she do anything to you, just accept it because you came to meet her in her home, if this should repeat again, I will make sure to deal with you" my mum said to her. "Now get lost"

She left us and went to her room upstairs.

"Mum, do I have to continue living with that monster?" I asked my mum squeezing my face.

"Don't worry dear, her time will soon be over. I will make sure she leaves this house" my mum said smiling. "That's why I love you mum" I said hugging her.

Quincy's POV

We are on holiday, I woke up early in the morning and went to the bathroom to brush my teeth and take my bath. Jason and I are going on a date, so I prepared myself and went downstairs to take a quick breakfast. On getting downstairs, Helena, her mum and dad were already at dinner. "Quincy come over here, have been waiting for you" dad said smiling brightly. I moved slowly to dad's side and sat down facing Helena and her mother. The looks on their faces were not good at all. Dad gave me some food to eat and also fed me. That makes them even more jealous and angry, but I don't care. I ate everything smiling happily. "Dad what of your princess" Helena said looking at us. "You can help yourself or ask your mum to do that for you" he said looking at Helena. Helena was so angry with this, that she left the dinner table and went to her room. Mrs David also followed leaving dad and I behind. "Dad why are you acting that way towards them?" I asked him. "What? Did I say something bad?" he asked looking at me. "I think you did" I said nodding my head. "Don't worry about them, you're my one and only hope and the heir to my company" he said smiling. "The heir?" I asked in surprise. "Yes, just because, I think you're more responsible" he said. I checked the time and saw that I am late, Jason will be waiting outside. "Dad, am going somewhere with a friend and I think am late" I said standing on my feet. "Oh sorry, you have to get going now" he said. "Bye dad" I said pecking his cheek. I got out and met his car in front of our gate, he stepped out immediately he saw me "Sorry am late" I said looking at him. "It's OK, I just got here also" he said smiling. We got into the car and he drove off.

We arrived home late at night, he dropped me in front of our gate. His house is close to ours, after this building, their building follows. "Good night" he said looking at me. I pecked his cheek and waved at him. I pressed the button by the gate and the security man opened the gate. I waved at Jason one more time, before closing the gate. I walked down the compound heading towards the building. I got inside and met Helena in the living room. She stood up on her feet on seeing me, "now, you're even coming home late" she said looking at me. I just ignored her, knowing she wants to cause another trouble. I walked towards my room and she stopped me again "can't you hear me? Do you want me to report you to my mum?" She asked looking at me. I just ignored her again and went on. She dragged me back by holding my hand. I was so angry and frustrated "what the hell do you want from me? And if I came in late or early, how is that your fucking business?" I barked at her angrily. "How dare you raise your voice? Have you forgotten what my mum said last night? I promise I will report you" she said sounding more annoying. "Do all the shits you want I don't care anymore, but I will warn you and your mother to stay away from me or else" I stopped for a while looking at her. "Or else what?" I heard Mrs David's voice from behind. "Did you just say you're warning me and my daughter?" she asked looking at me.

She came closer to me "did you just say that?" she asked again. "Yes I said it, you guys had pushed me to the wall, I think it's time for me to turn back now. Don't you think your daughter got the evil acts from you?" I asked fearlessly. "Hmm interesting" Mrs David said smiling at me. "Oh my, you're so brave. I think your mum will be happy to see this right now but what can we do? She's on life supporting machine and might probably end up dying" she said holding my shoulders. I removed her hands from my body angrily "what? You just want to push words out of my mouth. But I will save it for another time because I don't want someone to faint here again" I said smiling at Helena. "What nonsense do you have to spit out from that rotten mouth of yours?" Helena asked looking at me. I smiled again nodding my head "what do you know? I just prayed the truth won't land you in the hospital bed once again" I said laughing. "I think you're really crazy right?. I will definitely drive you out with all the powers have got" Mrs David said angrily. "What will you do this time? Will you call for your mum assistance?" I asked smiling. She looked at me angrily. I then moved closer to her folding my arms together. "Don't push me too hard, or else, I will reveal it to Helena that you're not her biological mother" I said whispering into her ear. "Is that clear or you want me to say that again?" I asked smiling. She looked at me in shock wondering how I knew that.

: (My beautiful love song)

Episode 35

I turned to Helena smiling "and you, I will warn you again, stop meddling in my affair if you don't want to get hurt" I said looking at her. She looked at me squeezing her face angrily "mum, how dare she talk to...."

"Let's go helena"her mum cuts in dragging her along with her. I smiled to myself watching them as they left.

I got up early in the morning, clean up myself and put on my clothes. I headed downstairs to take breakfast before visiting my mum in the hospital.

I got downstairs and met helena and her mother, it seems dad went to work early. I went to sit down at the dinning table while the maids set the dishes on the table properly. The maids cares and pays more attention to me than quincy and her mother. "Bon appetites" a maid said to me smiling. They left after setting the dishes. I looked at helena and her mother at the other side of the table, they were both looking at me without making a sound. I never knew Mrs David is this calm. I smiled to myself eating happily. After eating, I set to go to the hospital, and I met helena at the entrance. She blocked my way when I was about moving out"what did you said to my mum last night?"she asked looking at me. Then, I looked back and saw Mrs David coming towards us"you want to know what I said to your mum last night?"I asked looking at Mrs David's direction. "Anyways it's nothing special than, you're.....

"Quincy, I thought you were going out"Mrs David cuts in, standing in front of me. "But, I think your daughter is curious about what I said to you last night, and I think I should let her know or what do you think?"I said smiling. "Don't worry dear, you can go. Am sorry for my daughter's attitude towards you"she said looking at me. "What? Sorry? Mum is that you?"helena asked looking surprised. "Let's go in, helena"she said taking Helena's hand. But she forced her hand from her mum and came to me. "What the hell did you say to my mum, to make her like this?"she asked angrily. "Oh sorry little sis. I don't want to hurt you, it's better you don't know for now. The game is for adults"I said looking at her. I walked out on them, pushing helena to the side.

When I got to the hospital, I went to my mum's Ward. I sat beside her by the bed. "Mum, I've missed you so much. I prayed you wake up one day. I have a lot to tell you and I have a lot to ask you mum. Please hear your daughter's voice. Am so lonely here without you"I said holding her hand. I rubbed her hands gently with my hands. "Mum, dad is taking good care of me, how I wish we could be together. You, me and dad. Dad is a nice man, and I guess you accepted him because you can also see that in him. I prayed both of you could be together again, but I think Helena's mum won't accept that. Mum I even fought for you. yesterday night, you have to see how your daughter faced those bitches with courage. I promised to fight for your right and claim your place as the only woman my dad truly loves. So wake up and let's fight this together"I said still hold her hands. I noticed her fingers moving, and I quickly looked at her face"mum, can you hear me? It's me quincy"I said moving to her. But she was still unconscious. I quickly called for the doctor to come and check on her. But the doctor told me her condition is getting better little by little. And also said She'll get better soon if I visit her everyday.

I went home after staying in the hospital for a while, looking at my mum's face, hoping she'll wake up and call my name. But it was the same as always. When I got home, I went straight to my room. I sat on the bed thinking all sort of things. Then I flashed back to when my mum was dying back in our former house.

She wanted to mention someone's name but who is it? Ti...tin... What?"I covered my mouth with both hands in surprise"it can't be madam tina. That's impossible, how can she....how can she do that to her? Does that even make any since at all?"I thought to myself looking confused. I stood up and went out again. I entered my car and drove out of the compound. I headed to our former house, to check if I could find anything around the scene. Since I never went back since that time.

When I got to our gate, I saw madam tina's car in front of me. "What could her car be doing here?"I asked myself looking at it. I packed my car and got down. I then headed straight inside. I opened the main door leading to the living room. and what I saw left me with a great shock.

(My beautiful love song)

Episode 36

I saw madam tina coming out of my mum's room. She was shocked when she saw me in front of her. "Why are you here?"I asked her in surprise. She was not able to reply me, she was just looking at me as if she saw a ghost. "Don't tell me what am thinking is truth?"I asked looking at her. "What were you thinking? I don't know what you were thinking but I just came here to check something"she said. "I don't know when we came that close for you to come to this house. And how did you know this place to start with? I don't think I mention anything to you about our house"I said looking at her. "I heard of it from your dad"she said. I looked at her suspiciously, she walks out and head to her car. I watched her as she went not saying a word.

When she left, I entered my mum's room and looked around everywhere"mum, if madam tina is really the one behind it, I won't just take it. I will make sure she didn't get away with it"I said sitting on the bed. I looked forward and saw a shiny object at a corner of the room. I quickly rushed to it and picked it up. It's a wrist watch. I looked at it very closely"this is not for mum, then whose wrist watch is it? I asked myself looking at it. I have to find out about this. Mum just wait and see, I will reveal the mystery behind all this. I thought to myself.

I left the house and went home with the wrist watch.

Jason invites me to their house, I prepared myself and dressed beautiful.

When I got to the gate, I pressed the bell by the gate and the security man opened it for me. I went inside, looking around the compound. Their house was as big as ours and was decorated with beautiful flowers. I texted him and he came to meet me outside before I could get to the main entrance. "Wow, my beautiful quincy is here"he said hugging me. I hugged him smiling brightly. He released me and held my hand"let's go inside"he said smiling. I followed him in as he held my hand. When we got to the living room, his mum was sitting on the couch watching TV. I was so nervous and scared she might feel bad about jason and I. Jason asked me to sit down on the couch.

I wanted to seat down but his mum Jumped up on her feet looking at me strangely"why will you bring this type of girl to this house? What the hell are you doing with my son?"she asked angrily. "It's ok mum, quincy is my girlfriend. The person I love. Why are you sending her away?"jason asked screaming on top of his voice. "You must be joking. I won't allow that. She's not good for you, get out of this house now"his mom said barking at me. She picked up the whine she was drinking and splash it on my face"I said get lost"she said angrily.

"Quincy! Quincy!"jason called my name bringing me back to reality. "Yes ma"I said shaking. "What's wrong with you?"jason asked looking at me. "Mum, this is quincy have been talking to you about"jason said to his mum. She looked at me and I was expecting her to send me away or say bad comments about me. She stood up and came to me"wow, she's such a beauty. You're welcome dear"she said hugging me. I looked at jason and smiled. I greeted her and she was very happy to see me. She asked me a lot of things and even got me something to drink. I was so happy and it feels like am married to jason already.

"Too bad I won't stay long with you. I have a meeting to attend, we'll get to talk better later"she said smiling at me. A call came in and she picked up her phone"bye guys. I have to go"she said leaving. "Your mum is so nice"I said to jason. "She's always like that. She seems to like you"he said looking at me. "I love her personality, it's so cool"I said smiling. "Should I show you around the house?"he asked looking at me. "Ok, let's do that"I said smiling. He stood up and lead the way, I also followed him. He showed me around the house and his room was the last place he showed me. "Here Is my room"he said opening the door. I entered and looked round the room. "Wow,your room looks beautiful"i said looking round from corner to corner. I saw a frame on his shelf, it was turned down. I moved there and picked it up. I saw helena and jason putting on school uniform in the picture. "Wow you guys really looks cool here, just like a couple"I said holding the picture. "Then, we were still in high school"he said looking at the photo.

Jason's POV

"Helena was quite and calm back then, we were like Romeo and Juliet. We hang around together and do things together but I was surprised when she totally changed to an evil person. I wonder how people easily changed like that"I said to quincy. "Helena got that from her mother. She's a nice girl but her mother is the evil behind her. I can see that with my time with them"quincy said.

Helena was a nice person back then. She's a shy type who hardly speak when she's in the midst of people. When we were still in high school, I had feelings for helena with our times together. I like her more than a friend or sister and am aware she also had feelings for me. but my dad noticed that In us and told me not to see her like that, I should take her as my blood sister and should erase the love feelings I had for her. Though it was hard but, In time I returned the old feelings back and see her as a sister and not a woman. Since then, I ignored her feelings towards me.

"So comfortable"quincy said falling on my bed. "Here"she said hitting her palm beside her. I smiled and went to sleep beside her on the bed. She moved closer and rested her head on my chest. "Its more comfortable like this"she said. "Will you move in here and let's live together?"I said smiling. "That's impossible"she said laughing.

We talked and laughed about so many things. Before we fell asleep in my bed.

Quincy's POV

"jason are you inside?"I heard a voice from outside. The door was opened widely and I can see a man standing outside. I was still resting my head on Jason's chest. I looked through the window and saw it was dark already. I quickly jumped on my feet looking at the man, who is surprised to see me. Jason stood up from his bed standing beside me. "Dad, you're home?"he asked looking at the man. "That's why you can see me. Who is that young lady? I think I've seen her somewhere before"his dad said moving closer to us. "Where have I seen you?"he asked looking at me. "Oh, I saw you on tv with jason"he said smiling. "Yes dad. She's quincy, my friend"jason said looking at me. "Your friend or your girlfriend?"his father asked looking at me. "W..well, she is"jason said smiling. "Wow, you're such a beauty dear"he said smiling. "Thank you sir"I said bowing my head.

"I need to go"I said to jason whispering into his ear. "Dad let me see her out. It's getting dark"jason said to his dad. "Ok dear, take care"he said smiling. Jason escorted me to our gate and waved me good bye

Episode 37

I got inside and was walking straight to my room. Then, I overheard madam tina speaking to someone on phone"don't worry, I will make sure my daughter be the heir to the company. I know how to arrange that. Just relax, Its time for David to step down. I think he spent enough time as the president of the company"she said laughing out loud. "What is this evil woman planning again?"I thought to myself angrily.

I went to my room, wondering what madam tina is planning to do.

I went to check my mum at the hospital. And met Mr David there. "Dad you're here"I said looking at him. "Yes, I just got here now"he said smiling. I told him to be careful of Madam tina, she's planning evil things behind him. But he told me he's aware of that. She use to give him poisoned coffee every morning which is suppose to be killing him slowly until it gets worst but he wasn't taking it and pretend as if he doesn't know anything. And was also aware she puts my mum in this condition out of jealousy. But He want her to fall into her own trap because, if he should react to it, her mother would help her out again. He's just waiting for the perfect time to deal with her. I was surprised he knows all these. We stayed longer with my mum before going home together.

When we got home, madam tina was in the living room with her daughter. She stood up on seeing us and came to hug dad. "Welcome home dear"she said hugging him. "What an evil woman. Acting so pure and innocent to someone you're trying to hurt"I thought to myself looking at her angrily. "I need to rest"dad said and headed upstairs. I looked at both of them and rolled my eyes. I tried to leave for my room but something caught my eyes. I looked the frame picture of Mrs David By the wall, and saw the wrist watch around her wrist. I then looked at Madam tina"so, it's really you? You wont just get away with it. I promised"I thought to myself looking at her. I left for my room, think about the incident.

Two weeks later....

The unexpected happened.

Dad slept on his bed and was announced dead by his doctor. This shocked everyone. Jason 's family came to our house and everyone was very sad on hearing this news. Helena cried bitterly, madam tina also put on a fake acting. She was the one that cried most, but I know she'll be happy within herself. I also cried while jason consoled me and was also very sad. Madam tina excused herself to pick an Incoming call. I also excused myself and followed her silently. "Hello, that idiot is gone. How can he chose his daughter over us? He betrayed me first, so it's not my fault"she said to the caller. I looked at her angrily. I wish I had a gun with me right now and shoot her to death. She's so evil and heartless. She finished making call and turned round. She saw me standing there and moved closer. "Were you eavesdropping?"she asked looking at me. "What an evil bitch you are"I said angrily. "Go on and tell them this. No one will believe you"she said laughing. "It's your fault your father is like that. After his burial, I will deal with you then. Just be ready for me"she said smiling. She headed back inside acting sad again.

I followed her angrily but what I saw in the living room left me with a shock.

I walked slowly to the living room "mum, is that really you?" I asked looking at my mum. I quickly rushed to her and hugged her tight "mum, I've missed you so much" I said crying. "It's ok dear am here for you. I hear all what you always say to me in the hospital. I recovered fast because of you my lovely daughter" she said also crying. I looked at madam tina who was very surprised to see my mum. "Long time no see tina" my mum said smiling. "You thought am dead? But no, I can't die you this evil witch" my mum said angrily. Helena stood up and went to her mum. "Mum, what is she talking about?" helena asked her mum looking confused. Everyone was confused looking at us. "Why don't you tell that innocent girl that you're not her biological mother" my mum said looking at her. "What? What do you mean by that? Mum what's she saying?" helena asked more confused. "Yes you're not my daughter" Mr David said coming in with the prosecutors. Everyone jumped on there feet on see him. "Am not dead. Everything was planned. Tina, your evil deeds ends here" dad said looking at madam tina. "Dad what do you mean am not your biological daughter?" helena asked with tears in her eyes. "Am sorry dear, sorry for not telling you sooner" dad said looking at her. "Then, who are my real parents?" she asked in tears. "They are the one" dad said pointing to jason's parent. I was so surprised and so did jason and helena. "What? They're my parents? How...why" she stammered In tears not knowing what to say.

"When this barren was not able to give me a child, Daniel and his wife helped us. When Celia(Jason's mother) was pregnant with her second child, tina also had a fake pregnant to deceive everyone. And when Celia gave birth, the daughter was announced dead while tina had Celia baby with her. We kept this a secret between us until this day" dad said to everyone. Helena was not able to believe all these, she fainted on hearing it. "Helena stand up. It's mummy" madam tina cried holding helena in her arms. "Officers arrest that murderer" dad said to the prosecutors. "You're under arrest for attempting murder on Madam tina and Mr David" the officers said holding up the arrest warrant. They pulled her up and put handcuffs on her. "It's a lie, I didn't do that. Am innocent. Let me call my lawyer no my mother. Let me go" she screamed as they dragged her along with them. Helena was taken to the hospital by her parents and Mr David thanked Jason's family and was happy tina is gone. He hugged mum and I as we both weep tears of happiness.

A year later.....

Jason and I were in the practice room. After dancing and practicing for a long time. Jason stopped and asked for a break "let's have a short break" jason said looking at me. "No break until

I finish. Am having a show tomorrow, just let me practice better ok" I said smiling. "You're so stubborn, aren't you?" Jason said looking at me. I ignored him and continued practicing again but he was distracting me by kissing my cheek continuously. "Stop it, will you?" I said looking at him. "You should stop first or I won't stop" he said smiling. I continue practicing but now he kissed my lips and that made me stop. "I said that's enough" he said looking at me. I looked into his eyes smiling "I think this is more fun" I said looking at him. I then kissed him on his lips. He kissed me back and we continue kissing. I wrapped my arms around his neck and continue with the kiss. "You guys shouldn't be doing that here, someone might see you" I heard a voice behind us and we quickly separated each other looking at the person's direction. Helena and Noah came in holding hands. I was so embarrassed to see them. "Oh you guys are here?" I asked looking at them. They both smiled looking at us "hmm I came to tell you that we're leaving already" Helena said looking at me. "Ok I will see you later" I said to her smiling. "So, we'll leave you guys to carry on with what you we're doing" Noah said smiling. "Stop that, she's blushing. I think you're embarrassing her" Helena said to Noah. "Oh I think that's true. We're leaving bye" Noah said smiling. "Go go" I said looking at them. "Why chasing us? We're going already. Good luck bro" Helena said to Jason smiling. They both left the practice room. After they left, I looked at Jason and we both laughed.
