POLICE ARREST DRIVERS

Police have arrested 120 drivers in Kampala due to number of traffic offences they had committed.

In an operation conducted last week, many drivers were found driving recklessly. Others had no genuine driving licences while others were driving DMC vehicles. Some drivers were driving under the influence of alcohol whereas others had overloaded. Some drivers were seen diverting their vehicles to smaller routes commonly known as "panya" to avoid being arrested.

Those who were arrested were taken to Jinja Road Police Station and Wandegeya Police Station, waiting to be taken to courts of law. Others paid instant fines and the police released them with warnings.

The leader of the operation, OC traffic Jinja Road Police Station, Okalany Fred said that such operations were going to continue to reduce on the rampant cases of road accidents. He appealed to all road users to respect the Highway Code so as avoid road accidents.
