51. Read the story below carefully and in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

Almah Kyeswa hails from a poor family in Mpondwe District, Nkokonjeru Sub-county. Her father, Mr. Kirumira, a peasant who never had enough resources to support his family and educate his children.

However, he managed to educate Almah up to Primary Seven at St. Mbaaga Primary School, a local government school in their area. Unfortunately, Almah dropped out school after PLE due to lack of school fees.

Mr. Kintu, their neighbour brought her to the city to work for his daughter as a housemaid. While working as a housemaid, Almah admired Linda, Kintu's daughter who was a lawyer at the high court. She dreamt of becoming a lawyer too. However, she had no money to educate her. She thought of saving her salary but couldn't since she used to send her every penny to her poor parents in Mpondwe.

Despite all the above, she worked so hard for seven years taking care of Linda's children. As a token of appreciation, Linda took her back to school. She registered her with a nearby day school. She studied very hard and she was the best in class. She continued with her education up to university and pursued a degree in law which she attained two years ago from Makerere University.
