2. Church marriage is still described by traditional Africans as a white man’s culture intended to colonise Africans, with the hope of bringing to an end the meaningful traditional African values and practices.

Task:

What values does the church attach to church marriage? (20mks)

3. In the book of Mark, Jesus commanded his disciples to baptise all those who believe in their teaching. Even today christians are still being baptized to be initiated into the family of God and also get rid of the original sin of Adam and Eve.

Task:

From the above statement, why did Jesus then accept to be baptized by John the Baptist yet he was sinless? (20mks)

SECTION B: – MAN’S SOCIAL RELATIONS

4. In my home town, people have acquired many different levels of education, they have a lot of wealth, belong to different religions etc. Inspite of all those differences, everyone deserves to be treated equally.

Task:

How did Jesus Christ demonstrate equal treatment of his followers during his earthly time? (20mks)

5. Elders and parents in Kyabakuza village always talk to their boys and girls intending to get married. The Aunts and Uncles tell these boys and girls to take time studying their future marriage partners, avoid engaging in early sexual practices with them, check the background of these partners, inform their parents or elders on the choices made etc.

Task:

- No Explain the value of the above efforts of the elders and parents to the marriage life of their children. (20mks)
6. In the modern society, jealousy, misunderstandings, unfaithfulness etc are more common in most African family life styles and this has made many young people fear marriage and opt for single life.

Task:

How has the Bible tried to protect marriage from the above life style? (20mks)

SECTION C: – MAN’S DOMINION OVER THE WORLD

7. Madam Mungujakica who holds a degree in social work was offered a job opportunity as a manager in a Voluntary and Charity N.G.O. in her home district. She has however made an attempt to turn down the job opportunity because the place of work is far deep in a remote village.

Task:

Using your knowledge of work, advise Madam Mungujakica about her decision. (20mks)

8. Moses in the Old Testament warned the children of God about thinking that they became wealthy because of their own effort. They got wealth by God’s will and should therefore use their wealth to glorify God.

Task:

What does the above call of Moses remind the wealthy people of your society on the use of wealth? (20mks)

9. “Being a good employer means more than just giving good salaries to the employees.” This statement was made by the Late Bishop Kaggwa of Masaka Diocese on one of the International Labour Days celebrated in Uganda.

Task:

As a student of CRE, what opinion can you make on the above statement? (20mks)
