SECTION A: CASE STUDY

Answer all parts of this section.

1. Read the case study below and answer the questions that follow.

Maligumu whose ambition to take up business as a career materialized when he developed growing self confidence, analysed and scanned the environment to create chance for achievement rather than wait for it to come his way, and established Achievers' confectionaries (U) Ltd.

Maligumu Ventured into business in 1970s when the economy of Uganda had enormous unexpected business risks coupled with limited resources like finance, skills etc. He was able to identify, analyse market opportunities and took advantage of them. Because he took personal responsibility for the outcome, he formulated concrete goals which were neither too high nor too low. He developed a strong internal commitment and involvement with the goals and sought help from business experts to overcome personal limitations.

Focusing on high quality output to capture a large market share and evaluating business opportunities are his priorities. He studies production orders and level of sales to ascertain the market trend. He ensures that the workplace and storage facilities are cleaned regularly and are well organized. He observes flow of customers and cash to project performance of the business. His major role in the enterprise is monitoring and supervision to ensure that high quality inputs and packaging materials are used and technical specification regarding quality and quantity are followed. He keenly observes the number and strength of competitors as well as price charged to formulate marketing and sales promotions strategies. He also ensures that appropriate technology and skills are employed to produce output conforming to customers' needs in order to have an upper hand in the market.

Although, Maligumu has a humble background, he has managed to use entrepreneurial competencies and characteristics to be successful in business and build an empire of business and live a luxurious life.
